sightings and sets forth certain methods for describing the objects which are intended to give simple, quick, standard information.

[illegible] including observations which had to be classified as insufficient data for analysis, it was [illegible] that meteorological phenomena, aircraft, and [illegible] of all types have caused the majority of reports with such as the [illegible] reflections and refractions such as [illegible], accounting for a [illegible] by the Air Force experienced [illegible] per [illegible] explanatory chart [illegible] the [illegible] explain the sighting. [illegible] insufficient data, in [illegible] for [illegible] and [illegible] I [illegible] the [illegible]

[illegible] and several [illegible] are [illegible] in [illegible] at [illegible] amplitude. [illegible] sometimes from relatively experienced [illegible] even as the case of May 6, when 11 observers [illegible] while [illegible] for eight hours, from 3:00 a.m. at night to [illegible] a.m. in broad daylight. ATIC personnel went to the area [illegible] the report [illegible]

THIS PAGE IS UNCLASSIFIED