There is a point which should be made at this time for emphasis: None of the flying object reports which NTIC has on file are classified "Secret" or higher because they are "flying saucers". The unfortunate popular misconception is [illegible] Air Force files on the subject [illegible] classified. Such reports do not [illegible] classification. If a report happens to be classified it is only because it deals with [illegible] information [illegible] observers who wish to remain [illegible] or [illegible] capabilities or radar sites or [illegible].

In summing up [illegible] the following points can be made:
