Subject: Ufomind Link Page Created for Suicides

There appears to be a UFO connection to yesterday's mass suicides in Rancho Sante Fe.

I got calls this morning from AP and Inside Edition wanting to know about the Hale-Bopp comet. It seems that the group has made some claims on its web sites about the alleged companion object and this may play some factor in their suicides.

That's enough to justify adding a link page for the suicides to the Ufomind site. You can find this page at:

Readers are encouraged to add links to this page for any interesting documents, preferably those that concern alien or conspiracy connections.
