[redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

LOCATION	DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT	LENGTH OF TIME OBSERVED	SOUND	SPEED	ALTITUDE	HEADING	SOURCE	COMMENTS
Portsmouth, N.J.	Radar Returns (See Appendix VII).	Several minutes	None	Slow	6500'	Unknown	Radar Operator	See Appendix VII
Springfield, Ohio	Dark bullet shaped object about the same size as a B-29. Had glow in front, white vapor at tail.	10 Sec.	None	High	20,000'	315°	One man, ground unknown	No investigation
Dayton, Ohio	Pilot of Cessna reported that he almost collided with a black, high tailed swept wing aircraft.	Few Sec.	None	High	2400'	50°	Private Pilot	Probably friendly conventional a/c
Great Lakes Region	Air Defense Command radar activities tracked fast moving objects across Michigan and Wisconsin.	Approx. 1 Hr.	None	High	Unknown	Varied	ADC Radar	Believed to be due to weather disturbance
Tucson AFB, Ariz.	Object sighted over base twice. Four F-86's scrambled and sighted object over Nogales. Interceptor was unsuccessful due to altitude of object. Orbited three A's at 35,000'(See Appendix VIII).	Unknown	None	Unknown	35,000'	Varied	F-86 pilots and ground observers	See Appendix VII
Norfolk, Va.	Circular object which was shadow modified by a fourth base.	Unknown	None	Low	Unknown	Varied	Letter from four teenage boys	No investigation
Houston, Texas	Brilliant white light at a low altitude. Was generally stationary.	2 Hrs.	None	Stationary	Low	None	Airman	No investigation
Las Cruces, New Mexico	Various "fireball type" objects were observed.	Seconds	None	High	High	Varied	Employees	No investigation
Boise, Idaho	White circular object.	15 Sec.	None	High	Unknown	270°	Graduate Physicist	No investigation Very carefully taken
Fort Wayne, Ind.	Round, silver colored object moved over a range at 45° angle (See Appendix VIII).	15 Sec.	None	Very high	Unknown	135°	CAA Chief Aircraft Communicator	See Appendix VIII
Chicago, Ill.	Round, silver colored object seen by private pilot (See Appendix II).	Unknown	None	Very high	5000'	45°	Private pilot	See Appendix II
Minneapolis, Minn.	Round silver object seen by pilots training a balloon and by ground observer team (See Appendix X).	Several minutes	None	High	High	Unknown	Balloon observers	See Appendix X
Lowell, Mass.	Pulsating object.	Unknown	Unknown	Unknown	Unknown	Unknown	Two children	No investigation
Grand AFB, Colo.	Radar echo, round object. Radar sighted by Nogales crew. Intercept by four F-84's was unsuccessful.	30 Min.	None	Slow	High	270°	AF and Navy personnel	Proved to be radar
Salt Lake City, Utah	"Strange object".	Unknown	Yes	Unknown	Unknown	Unknown	Letter from civilian	No investigation
Little Rock, Arkansas	Disk-shaped object 30' - 40' in diameter. Pilot in twelve and object head on. Object was disk-shaped with a highly polished surface.	Several Seconds	None	High	3000'	85°	Civilian pilot, 11 yrs experience	Reading
Fort Worth, Texas	Radar return - unidentified object.	4 Min.	None	2270 mph	Unknown	135°	Radar operator	Indications of radar phenomena due to weather
San Antonio, Texas	Round, red disk-like object reflective sun's rays. This incident took place at the same time a large meteor was seen in other parts of the U.S. The description is different, however, as none of the meteors looked like disk-shaped aircraft.	2 Sec.	None	Very high	Very high	90°	City detective	No investigation

UNCLASSIFIED

[redacted]