37 Max asks the dreaded, "Why now?"

Lue says, "Why not now?"

36 Lue asked where he thinks we'll be in 5 years w/this topic. He says if u had told him there would be language in a NDAA, referring 2 biological effects from UAP, he would have thought you were crazy. Came so far so quick. So, who knows where we'll be. NASA is getting involved.

35 Lue: "And as a result of that, it tends to be a little bit harder to define, or a little bit harder to understand, because itâ□□s not a completely human thing to begin with. "

Back to Max interview...

Lue: Foreign pilots experience UAP near water but also in other locations.

advanced and unrelated to the question have formally requested the Government of San Marino - the small republic that for 3 decades has allowed the annual event on the Titan - to request the United Nations Organization to transform its World Symposium on UFOs into an event under the aegis of the UN, with the aim of monitoring in the future in the most complete transparency, with such an annual world congress, a problem by now "cleared of customs" and of global scope and to which the public and science attach ever greater importance. During a close meeting and with the American Luis Elizondo as testimonial, the traditional organizer of the Symposium Dr. Roberto Pinotti, the aerospace journalist, president of the Italian National UFO Center founded in 1967 and of the newly established ICER (International Coalition for Extraterrestrial Research), which brings together experts from around thirty different countries on a global level, has transmitted the project in question to the exponents of three Dicasteries of the Republic of San Marino , which the Government of the Titan will have to evaluate and eventually, once it has become its own, to transmit for the follow-up to the United Nations Organization. The enthusiastic public applauded the initiative for a long time, which was thus publicly launched. If they are roses ... that the Government of the Titan will have to evaluate and eventually, once it has been made its own, to transmit for the follow-up to the United Nations Organization.

4 Lue: It's NOT a UFO conference. It's a three-day, scientific conference sponsored by the CUN (Italian UFO group).

Tomorrow, Lue will be talking to military eyewitnesses to UFOs & talk about the impact on Italy, the world, etc. It's about learning more and collaboration.

3 At the SM conference, there are scientists, academics and government officials and other senior military people all coming out of the shadows to have the convo.

You had aeronautical specialists & engineers talking about the possibility of life in our solar system & universe.

2 The CUN is also there.

Last time Lue was in Italy on UFO biz with the CUN involved, I transcribed the event, here:

1 From San Marino, Italy conference. Highlights: Lue there 2 try 2 make it the global convo it should be. He spoke w/a senior, Italian military officer ("like, REALLY senior") & his colleagues r even more senior. Looks like the ice is finally breaking.

GEORGE KNAPP: "I heard something like two dozen videos have been made available. ... "He (Lue) resigned, wrote an impassioned letter to the Secretary of Defense (Jim Mattis) explaining why he was leaving-- Because the UFO issue needed to be studied more diligently so he was going to work with Tom DeLonge to do that. And he came here to Las Vegas with DeLonge to meet with Robert Bigelow and invited me to this dinner, showed me those videos, and also his resignation letter. And he told me that there are a lot more videos to come, that these show amazing things that we can't do, and that it needs to be studied."

Is this the infamous 23-min video where Lue said if it gets out, it's "game over" as far as people saying it's our tech or Russian or Chinese? If so, I'm not sure why Lue was so hesitant to say footage was shot from an F-18. Instead he said it was one of our sensors or similar.

2 Or, there's something going on that's truly disturbing. I wish I knew. Lue has said that maybe some folks know more (intent, where they're from, etc.) & he/they r trying to figure out if that's the case. IMO, there R some folks in these deeply buried programs who may know more.

Don't know. Lue has hinted that he's seen it. That's why he uses the word, "belief."

When asked, on a scale from 1-100, how sure are you that there's a crash retrieval program. EWD's answer: 1000 & others feel the same way. I haven't communicated with those other folks, AFAIK. https://twitter.com/novak_meri/status/1436366050111770653 @PostDisclosure 3 And Eric isn't the only one convinced there's a crash retrieval program. Some of those folks are dead and some still alive.

But, of course, we need evidence to prove it! Not sure how to get it. If progress continues, maybe we'll get there in a few years? Or sooner? Or never!

2021-09-10T16:08:50+00:00
https://twitter.com/_/status/1436361028518903808
@PostDisclosure 2/2 ...why not have Lue say the same thing & reference the crash retrieval program? He doesn't. He only goes as far as to say USG has debris or exotic materials. It just doesn't make sense. Eric does his due diligence & that's why he was asked to brief SSCI/SASC & others on CRs.

In January, KLAS investigative reporter, George Knapp and billionaire, space entrepreneur, Robert Bigelow, both expressed their concerns about who was heading up the UAP Task Force:

> "…sources familiar with the Task Force say there's been a major change at the top. The high-ranking official who's led the UFO investigation for years, is out. The name has not been made public but we've learned it's the same official who's been briefing Congress since 2018 and who's been directly responsible for getting elected officials interested in the subject. The Navy assigned the official to other duties."

10 AD: ten years ago but I never told anybody about it bc I don't want to be that kooky UFO person. Folks tell AD that it could affect their job, relationship w/family, church or community. Fascinating for AD to see people reach out & have AD "hold" their UFO stories for them.

IMO, there IS a #UFO/UAP - CR/RE program & other, related programs. It's just a matter of who we're going to hear from (IF, the public ever hears from them) & what they've been studying & trying to RE. What % of N2K folks have access?

@MikeColangelo @sicktanick I want nothing to do with a POS who calls someone a Nazi bc her birth year is 1988. He's unhinged. I don't care if he did it to Jess, you or Greenewald. I'd still speak up and have so in the past.

One of the toughest things I've done in my UFO search came when I made a cold call 2 someone listed in W/D notes. I'm NOT of a fan of bothering someone but I did it & spoke 2 a guy I believe had knowledge of all SAPs, including the crash retrieval program

https://ufojoe.net/wilsondavis3 http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E-kACWyVEAI0nCE.png

I spoke with a former military man mentioned in the Wilson/Davis documents who, in theory, also should have had access to every SAP during a specific portion of his time with the government. He 100% interacted with Admiral Wilson. He agreed to let me write about our phone call on the condition that I not name or identify him. He wouldn't let me record the call so I took notes and typed them into my laptop as soon as I hung up. I only used a few quotes and the rest are paraphrased but accurate.

My first question was, "Do you know about the Wilson/Davis documents?" He quickly responded with a terse, "No!" and I thought he was going to hang up. I asked him if he was interested in the subject of UFOs and that seemed to loosen him up. "Like many people, I had an interest in the subject since I was a child."

He believes if there was a UFO program, he and his colleagues would have found it among the various SAPs. He/they never saw anything like that.

I asked him if it was possible there was a program he/they didn't know about? He immediately contradicted himself and said yes and added that there may be levels of secrecy people don't know about.

@blackvaultcom @TheProjectUnity @OmniTalkRadio In the notes, Wilson says he searched for 45 days or so to find this SAP.

And that alleged NRO doc is not mentioned anywhere in the notes.

@blackvaultcom @TheProjectUnity @OmniTalkRadio No. To me, despite what Greer says, that doc has been the least compelling/important, part of the story. As it says in the notes, Wilson met w/Miller for 2 hours after the briefing in April of 1997 & then TW did his own digging/research until he found the SAP he was looking for.

Spent the day at the precise location of an encounter that is as spectacular as any I've heard. Three witnesses came within 8′ of an being with brown Oily skin, big head and huge red eyes...3x's the size of ours. The photo of me against the wall is exactly where the being was in relation to the woman standing next to it. Yesterday, we filmed new witnesses that support the story of strange beings.

This case is fascinating.

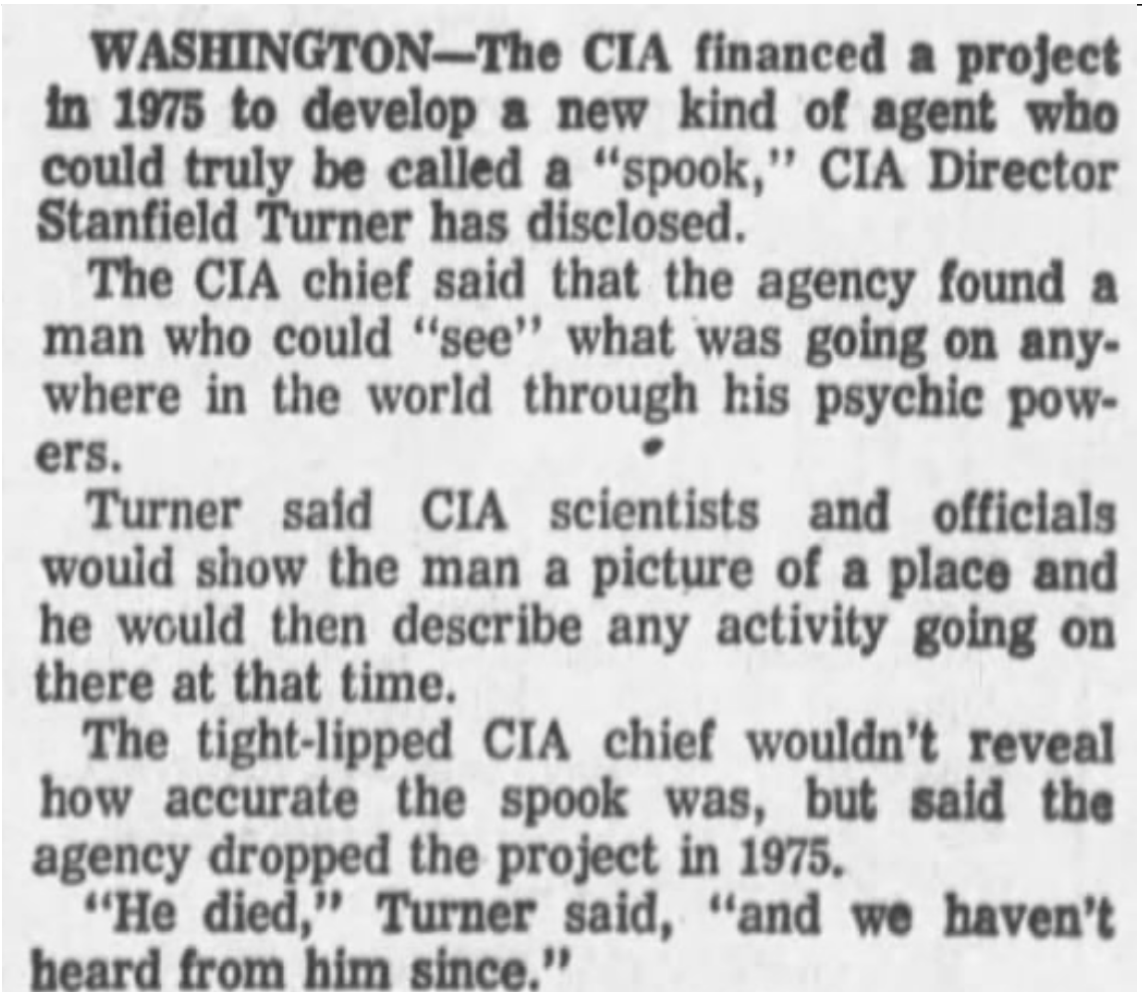
Was Pat Price an accurate psychic/remote viewer? Here's former CIA director, Stansfield Turner, commenting on the late, Pat Price and his psychic abilities.

https://newspapers.com/clip/25320868/pat-price-quote-chicago-tribune-13

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E-cz36SUUAYF5Li.png



WASHINGTON—The CIA financed a project in 1975 to develop a new kind of agent who could truly be called a "spook," CIA Director Stanfield Turner has disclosed.

The CIA chief said that the agency found a man who could "see" what was going on anywhere in the world through his psychic powers.

Turner said CIA scientists and officials would show the man a picture of a place and he would then describe any activity going on there at that time.

The tight-lipped CIA chief wouldn't reveal how accurate the spook was, but said the agency dropped the project in 1975.

"He died," Turner said, "and we haven't heard from him since."

“Various people within the United States government, in positions of oversight and who you would think had access to all UAP programs, did not find the UAP crash retrieval program when they looked because they never knew of its existence. I, and others in my circle, have discussed the topic with them of how one cannot find waived-unacknowledged SAPs that operate outside of Section 119 of Title 10. In fact, a DoD office can create a shell company and then transfer funds to it under an unremarkable commercial defense services contract. Then that shell company turns around and gives a subcontract to a third-party aerospace/defense firm that hosts a waived-unacknowledged SAP that operates outside of Sect. 119 of Title 10. This usually hides (making the audit trail terminate at the shell company) the flow of money going to the third party company that’s running a waived-unacknowledged SAP where a UAP crash retrieval program is hidden.

Well, McMoneagle's RVing says Mars was "destroyed" when it went thru the tail of a comet, which ripped away its atmosphere.

What's interesting about "The Key" (which I read) is this man told WS intervention happens when we destroy Earth. That's similar to what Summers/Allies say https://twitter.com/JTParker09/status/1433515136355119116

3 This started bc Scott posted 2 videos of @AnjaliOnGaia acting in two shorts & a commercial. Follow his comments above to see that.

Kind of surprised Scott didn't know about these close encounter witnesses/claims @ WS's cabin. He's sharing inaccurate/incomplete information.

Not true.

@conterammundi I think Sheehan needs to be more careful. He speculated that Lue's complaint was the impetus for the IG evaluation of the DoD's handling of the UAP matter to be announced that afternoon. And that doesn't seem to be the case at all. No harm, no foul. Except for credibility.

12 "So they brought their DoD lawyer and then they brought another Assistant Inspector General, and then they brought a colonel from the United States Air Force."

Doubt Sheehan would mistake a Brigadier General for a colonel so who was the AF colonel who attended the meeting?

2021-09-01T01:01:19+00:00

https://twitter.com/_/status/1432871156290244613

11 Brigadier General Bullard Commander, Air Force Office of Special Investigation was supposed to attend one of the IG meetings but couldn't make it.

On the June 22nd edition of Saturday Night Alive, Sheehan spoke about who else attended the mid-June meeting in DC with the IG.

2021-09-01T01:01:19+00:00

https://twitter.com/_/status/1432871155082227715

10 What does it all mean? Not much. Sheehan felt the IG evaluation idea was spawned a few hours after Lue's complaint was filed but there's no evidence for that. So, it appears Sheehan was wrong. Does it change anything. No.

But those emails! This is what else caught my eye.

2021-09-01T01:01:19+00:00

https://twitter.com/_/status/1432871153886851075

9 Also @ MegaCon, Sheehan insinuated this evaluation came out of the blue & said the IG, "announced this in this big formal way that suddenly, the DoD had sort of decided that it was time to have some kind of an official evaluation of this issue."

Emails show it was not sudden.

@johnbruso It's from June. Sheehan got involved with Greer to make sure the whistleblowers in 2001 had legal representation after they ignored their security oaths and spilled their guts about what they experienced. If the gov't was going to come down on them for that, Sheehan was ready.

I don't trust anything w/o some feedback. Doesn't matter if it's channeling, remote viewing, a top intuitive giving me a reading, or my own precognitive dreams.

But I can still evaluate the information & decide if it rings true to me. Not much more we can do with most of this. https://twitter.com/CanesReign/status/1432559109132402690

https://twitter.com/_/status/1432558203401691137

@Adk11T2 The various channeled messages r all over the place. Summers' channeled messages r different than most but definitely not totally unique. Ra Material has some similarities but as Courtney Brown said, some of it was gobbledegook. I would read it 10 times & it never made sense! :-)

@Adk11T2 It's possible some r getting their info. from other beings, others are getting it from their supposed "higher self," or subconscious, others are tapping into the Akashic records, & so on. 4 now, the only thing that matters is:

Is the data accurate? Impossible 2 know right now.

Channeling is supposedly an intelligent being(s) sending the message telepathically. If true, do u trust that being 2 tell the truth?

Remote viewing, supposedly, helps u bring forth psi data via your subconscious. No middle man.

But maybe they both tap into the same database?

@anthonysargon @OldManBones @EngagingThe I think it's because it's a claim that makes no sense. Sheehan has said that he thinks we may have some fancy tech. But to suggest we turned off nukes and in some cases, put them into launch mode? IMO, that's a ridiculous claim, especially w/o any evidence to back it up.

If you want to make a logical argument that makes ANY sense at all why we would put nukes into launch mode here and in Russia, good luck.

This is not new information. Bosley is a one-trick pony when it comes to this kind of claim.

"The Secret Life of Uri Geller"

Free PDF.

I think this is different than "Uri Geller: Magician or Mystic?" which I LOVED. But same author.

Jonathan Margolis is a technology journalist for the Financial Times and writes on more general subjects, especially China, for publications including the Observer, the Guardian, the New Statesman and the Daily Mail. He is a former London contributor to TIME magazine and is also the author of two popular science books – The Intimate History of the Orgasm and A Brief History of Tomorrow, an investigation into triumphs and disasters of futurologists through the ages.

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E-EDu6ZVkAEO3fR.png

I never planned to become an expert on Uri Geller. A smaller boy made me do it – my son, David, aged 15 in 1996, when we first had the Internet, became fascinated online by the controversy over Geller.

I sighed and tried to discourage him. 'He's just a washed-up fake,' I explained. David was not convinced, and through a wonderful British inventor, John Knopp, whom I had interviewed, he made contact with Geller.

@WitnessCitizen @path_master @SBrowneITF You've obviously missed @path_master's point. Anjali's story could very well be untrue but Scott's tweet is useless on that front.

Scott: Here's a tunnel in the Mojave.

Hmmmmm. What a weird coincidence.

This means Anjali's tunnel story is a lie.

There's zero logic there.

As far as Havana Syndrome being related to UAP? I mean, if that were the case, wouldn't "they" be considered hostile? And Lue has repeatedly steered us in the opposite direction of that. So?

Q about Anjali. Lue?

Lue: Great! We need extraordinary evidence. Good luck! I wouldn't quit my day job 2 go find it. A lot of people want 2 be part of a narrative. I don't know Anjali or Lazar. No opinion.

@Munook His channeling is different than most. Iâ□□d say 90% of the channeling Iâ□□ve read is about light & love & our â□□ascensionâ□□ to the next level. @Bhima_Jenkins @marshallsummers I don't think he's saying that here. As I said, I think it's more about reality of psi & his personal experiences than accuracy of MS's channeled info. But yeah, share it, Lue!

2 IMO, Lue's "surprising perspective" is more about how that info. is acquired (via psi or our 6th sense) than the accuracy of what Marshall has shared via the supposed Allies of Humanity. The accuracy of that info. remains 2B seen. I think Lue had SOME role in the RVing program.

Lue: You know, we do see interesting things that the human mind is able to do. I mentioned remote viewing, but there's been some other experiments with, for example, metronome synchronization, you see random number generators as well, I'm very familiar with that. And even to some degree, one could argue, there has been some proposals, I'm not going to say by who or where I heard this from, if anyone. But even something like Havana Syndrome. Imagine if a foreign adversary, which is the world I come from, has developed a way to take psychotronic weapons development, which we were involved in, everyone was involved in, in the 60s and 70s. For those who don't know what psychotronic weaponry is, it is the integration of technology, tronic, that's the word tronic, psycho-tronic, and human cognitive abilities to affect something physically, okay? So, a machine in which… [let's say] the Russians and the Americans are playing a game of chess. In essence, a Russian could sit in the back, or an American, in the back of the crowd, with a little device and then use, amplify certain thought waves to affect actions or make someone feel sick, or make someone scared or make someone nervous. These were real experiments that were done, and there's some real interesting evidence to suggest that some of that may indeed be quite real.

The initial, early bird price, was $100. Then it was $249, w/a $100 coupon that made it $149.

The most I saw in the virtual campus was 135 or so.

But let's say average price was $200 & they sold 400 tickets. I think @Lynda_Katerra heard that?

Lue: Marshall, understand when I'm "sharp shooting" you, I'm not disagreeing with you. What I'm doing is posing to you the questions as an investigator. The reason why I don't superimpose my own thoughts/ beliefs is I'm not sure it's fair nor relevant. What's important are the facts. Not bc I believe or don't believe you. Just trying to look at it from an outside perspective and ask Qs and try to evaluate the authenticity of the information. It's not about you, it's me. I'm just trying to understand where the information is coming from. Please don't think that I think it's hogwash bc I actually have, maybe a surprising perspective that you're not aware of. But I keep those very private and it's important as an investigator I remain as objective and as fair as possible and so that's why I ask you the Qs that I do. It's not personal.

Heading to Varginha, Brazil for the 4th time to investigate an alleged 1996 UFO crash retrieval. We have interviews lined up with both military and civilian witnesses who will (hopefully) shed light on what exactly happened and where the debris and reported bodies went. I would be lying if I said I wasn't a little nervous going into a foreign land with the intent of exposing things the government clearly didn't want exposed. I'm packed and ready...

It was all over the place but that's what happens when none of us know the truth. Some try 2 fill in the blanks, & others speak as if they KNOW what's going on. I need to always add that last line bc there will always be people who say, "You believe channeled material? WHAT?"

I think some channeled material may have some valid data. But it's hard bc so much of channeled material contradicts itself from channeler to channeler.

The only new thing I noticed in the Carlson show:

"One active-duty, Navy pilot told us that he frequently sees UFOs while flying. Often, they're hovering over cattle."

Supposedly, this is James Garrison, who just lectured at MC.

I'm sorry but I'm pretty sure this is Steven Greer with a wig, and he snuck into the conference.

At the end, he started flexing. Dead giveaway.

3 "The review committee came up with a final list of seventy-three high-quality UFO reports from twenty-eight states within the continental US."

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/FbmIZtGUYAAZ-DJ.jpg

F-plots

An f-plot is a graph showing characteristics of the ionosphere,[184] which is an ionized region of the Earth's upper atmosphere ranging from about 30 mi./48 km through 600 mi./966 km above the Earth.[185] It has several layers, and the middle layer is known as the E layer.[186] Thin layers of enhanced ionization can form within the E layer, known as sporadic E.[187] At times these can be highly dense, in which case they are referred to as the blanketing frequency of sporadic E.[188]

Out of forty-two UFO reports examined, twenty-six were considered to be in time coincidence with a relatively large fluctuation in the blanketing frequency of sporadic E.[189]

2 How do you write/talk about the beginning of the AAWSAP program (most won't even say AAWSAP) and not include the event that was a big impetus for it coming together? Glad Knapp and Corbell were willing to give us hints about it, Davis added more and then Bigelow topped it off.

@DallasAnalytics @UAPmike I believe it's a real phenomenon and a non-human intelligence is involved. As to why it's being done? IMO, selfish reasons on their part. The procedures reported over and over, that include taking ova, semen and such, point towards it being a type of breeding program. Maybe.

@g_knapp explains :backhand_index_pointing_down_medium-light_skin_tone:
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E8yvHdwVgAMjr62.png

So you didn’t see that term in the New York Times story. But that’s what the program was called in the beginning: AAWSAP. And the twenty-two million dollars that was spent, that you saw, did not go to the AATIP…the study of flying saucers, the program in the Pentagon. It went to Bob Bigelow. It was put out in a contract. It was advertised on the federal network. Bigelow was the only one who applied for the bid. That was in 2007, is when the groundwork was laid for it. 2008 is when the contract was awarded. And it made sense that he would get it. For one thing, he was willing to put up the facilities. He was wiling to pay for buildings and changes to buildings. He spent a million dollars of his own money preparing for this.

The money came in and I know there are a lot of questions about twenty-two million dollars, which, to Bob Bigelow, a billionaire, it’s not a lot of money. He hired 54 people, at one point. The names of all of those people. you can find them online. He advertised online for scientists and investigators. And he hired them. And he sent them to work. And some of the work that they did was at Skinwalker Ranch and a lot of the work was creating a gigantic database. Maybe the biggest UFO database in the world.

It included personal investigations. They sent out investigators to UFO hot spots. They’d get reports and do these investigations to try to figure things out. Some of the stuff… involved medical effects on people. Deleterious medical effects on people who encountered UFOs and other kinds of paranormal and supernatural phenomena. It was a gigantic database that included data that was acquired from foreign governments. It analyzed incidents like the Tic Tac. Not j*ust* Tic Tac but other, dramatic incidents like that. That went on for three years and then the money was pulled. And it’s unfortunate because if that had gone

3 Miller (who @lesliekean called a "true insider") & his opinion on which countries have non-human, recovered tech & whether he thinks the U.S. has cracked gravity. Notice he thinks we have an, "entire operational craft." Where have I heard that before? #WilsonDavis #IntactCraft http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E8xQclcUcAQJUL4.png

JM: If there has been technology transfer, has it benefited humanity? Should it?

WM: Lasers, LEDs, fiber optics, bioengineering, just to name a few that may have “off-planet” genesis. Yes, it should benefit humanity.

JM: In your opinion, from what you have learned from sources, do you think we (or other countries) have an intact craft, multiple intact craft or just pieces of UFOs?

WM: It’s my firm belief that yes, we – the Russians, probably the Germans, & perhaps the Chinese have at least partial technologies (pieces), and most likely for the US – entire operational craft.

I believe we have our own trans-luminal velocity craft that can take us anywhere in space & time. Did we develop this technology independently? Probably not!

2 "No abductee is going 2 the police about anything regarding their experiences!! If they are fortunate enough 2B working w/a researcher in the field who they feel safe with, they MIGHT go 2 them. Most suffer alone & in silence bc they are afraid of being labeled crazy or a hoax"

October 25, 2005 Emma writes about the cotton bud being thrown away.

"I am sorry, but I won't be able to send the cotton bud sample. I think I flushed it down the toilet. I had it on a tissue next to my bed and left it there for a while. I couldn't do anything about it for a while, but some time after I spoke to you on the phone I thought about it and realised I had a vague memory of flushing the tissue, and maybe also the cotton bud, down the toilet. I usually throw tissues in the bin, so I went through everything in the bin and it was not there. So I think I must have flushed it. I feel really embarrased [sic] about this, and I am sorry. I went out today and bought a packet of cotton buds which I am now keeping by my bed in case it happens again. I will also put some plastic bags and envelopes by my bed, so if it happens again I can get it ready to post to you immediately. Hopefully that will stop it happening again."

@emmawoodsfiles The entire thing may have been entirely wrong on Jacob's part. But, how could you have no idea if it was brought up before the hypnosis session? And that was in response to telling him you flushed the tissue, right? Help me understand.

November 11, 2005. Emma once again told me about having intercourse with a hybrid and having a leftover residue. No regression session.

D: Now, you remember, Emma, that if you could ever get a sample it would be a sort of important event. So, you want to make sure that, you know, in the afternoon or the evening if you get a sense that something has happened and there's some sort leakage or drainage or something like that, then you want to just take your underwear, stick them in a plastic bag or take cotton swabs or whatever it is you do – put them in the plastic bag and just don't even think about. Have an envelope already addressed to me and ready to go. Stick it in and just take it to the post office and be done with it. And don't even think about, and don't even think about it afterwards. Don't give it another thought after you do it. You just do it automatically. What you can do is you go to the post office and have everything pre-measured so that you can just have the postage on it and everything else and just stick on a postal box without even having to go to the post office.

@MusicAndTruth @RyanSprague51 Most women who are sexually assaulted by humans don't even want to go to the police.

"Forty percent of rapes and sexual assaults were reported to police in 2017, but only about 25% were reported to police in 2018."

@IWANTTOKNOWUK @RyanSprague51 His take on this is really odd. How can an abductee (many who experience sexual trauma at the hands of non-humans) expect to go to the police with their story and be taken seriously?

Exactly. These folks (Jacobs, Hopkins, Smith & others) were flying by the seat of their pants with how to handle this. In a just world, the experiencers would have been able to go an actual psychotherapist & not rely on folks who were trying to help but were in over their heads. https://twitter.com/adrian_probert/status/1425840787292491777

@adrian_probert It would be HUGE!!! Especially since we have no hard evidence hybrids are real. In theory, IF hybrids are real & have Slide 9-like abilities, u would think they'd do everything in their power to avoid a researcher from being able to test their DNA. Thus, FLUSH. Total speculation.

2021-08-12T02:12:10+00:00

https://twitter.com/_/status/1425641226213093376

2 IF, u believe hybrids were able to influence Emma (abductee) & "make" her throw out the fluid samples (I'm skeptical on that but...Slide 9) so Jacobs couldn't test DNA, then DJ was trying to "override" the Slide 9-like actions with a hypnotic suggestion on underwear. In theory.

April 21, 2005. Emma writes about getting DNA from secretions:

"I was also thinking about something that is a bit embarrassing, but I geuss [sic] you will probably be okay with me asking about it. From my memory of it, when the hybrid person had sex with me, they did not pull out before the end, and after they had gone, I wiped myself off with toilet paper. (The scary thing is you can actually see some of the toilet paper on the bed in the unexplained photo, next to the ruler. I had wondered why it was there when I saw it in the photo, and it had been bugging me.) If that memory is accurate, they must be really confident that you won't remember what happened, and do something like freeze the evidence, and get it analysed for DNA, etc."

April 21, 2005. I write back to her about obtaining discharge after sex with hybrid.

"Most abductees say that the late-stage hybrid looks normal except that his skin might be a little different. It is hard for them to put it in words. Perhaps the lack of blemishes is what they are seeing by don't realize it. I was going to ask you if there was a discharge of any sort when you got up in the morning. The conversation sort of went past it to the photo and I forgot to ask it. Thanks for reminding me. If this were to happen again and you suspect that they [sic] same thing occurred, be sure to save whatever discharge there is and get it absorbed into a tissue or toilet paper or whatever. Put it in a jar and preserve it. I might be able to have it analyzed. Hybrid semen is something we have been trying to get our hands on and it would be a very major event, I think."

April or May, 2005. In a phone conversation Emma told me that she had "lost" the Q-tip.

October 2005. Emma told me about more gelatinous substances on her. She collected another sample with a tissue and Q-tip. Again, she said she would send them to me. Once again we discussed the importance of this material, DNA.

1 Why did Jacobs ask Emma to pack/mail her underwear (that allegedly had DNA evidence from a hybrid that left behind semen/fluids) & not even think about it? Bc for whatever reason, she was throwing out/flushing evidence & was embarrassed about it. This convo was BEFORE hypnosis. http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E8itLlkUUAAlI31.png

October 25, 2005 Emma writes about the cotton bud being thrown away.

"I am sorry, but I won't be able to send the cotton bud sample. I think I flushed it down the toilet. I had it on a tissue next to my bed and left it there for a while. I couldn't do anything about it for a while, but some time after I spoke to you on the phone I thought about it and realised I had a vague memory of flushing the tissue, and maybe also the cotton bud, down the toilet. I usually throw tissues in the bin, so I went through everything in the bin and it was not there. So I think I must have flushed it. I feel really embarrased [sic] about this, and I am sorry. I went out today and bought a packet of cotton buds which I am now keeping by my bed in case it happens again. I will also put some plastic bags and envelopes by my bed, so if it happens again I can get it ready to post to you immediately. Hopefully that will stop it happening again."

November 11, 2005. Emma once again told me about having intercourse with a hybrid and having a leftover residue. No regression session.

D: Now, you remember, Emma, that if you could ever get a sample it would be a sort of important event. So, you want to make sure that, you know, in the afternoon or the evening if you get a sense that something has happened and there's some sort leakage or drainage or something like that, then you want to just take your underwear, stick them in a plastic bag or take cotton swabs or whatever it is you do – put them in the plastic bag and just don't even think about. Have an envelope already addressed to me and ready to go. Stick it in and just take it to the post office and be done with it. And don't even think about, and don't even think about it afterwards. Don't give it another thought after you do it. You just do it automatically. What you can do is you go to the post office and have everything pre-measured so that you can just have the postage on it and everything else and just stick on a postal box without even having to go to the post office.

E: Yeah. I got like cotton swab things. I was going to get an envelope so I didn't [inaudible].

CHARGE: I am a sexual deviant for asking for her unwashed underpants

This charge against me illustrates Emma's signature style of attack: maliciously taking my words out of context. Early on in our sessions, Emma mentioned that after sex with a hybrid she found a gelatinous mass in her underpants (knickers). She said she was going to send me a cotton bud (Q-tip) with the discharge on it. I believed that this sample might offer some rare material evidence about the abduction phenomenon, and we talked about the importance of obtaining hybrid DNA. Here is the ten-month history that Emma concealed in her attack on me.

April 21, 2005. Emma writes about getting DNA from secretions:

"I was also thinking about something that is a bit embarrassing, but I geuss [sic] you will probably be okay with me asking about it. From my memory of it, when the hybrid person had sex with me, they did not pull out before the end, and after they had gone, I wiped myself off with toilet paper. The @POTUS could talk to my source, who would then tell him where to look for (and find) the crash retrieval program. But would they (contractor) give Biden access? Doubtful. I wish Trump would have asked and been turned away. Interested to see how he would've reacted.

> “Various people within the United States government, in positions of oversight and who you would think had access to all UAP programs, did not find the UAP crash retrieval program when they looked because they never knew of its existence. I, and others in my circle, have discussed the topic with them of how one cannot find waived-unacknowledged SAPs that operate outside of Section 119 of Title 10. In fact, a DoD office can create a shell company and then transfer funds to it under an unremarkable commercial defense services contract. Then that shell company turns around and gives a subcontract to a third-party aerospace/defense firm that hosts a waived-unacknowledged SAP that operates outside of Sect. 119 of Title 10. This usually hides (making the audit trail terminate at the shell company) the flow of money going to the third party company that’s running a waived-unacknowledged SAP where a UAP crash retrieval program is hidden.

No, @g_knapp did NOT say it was a set-up. It occurred bc Lacatski had an experience @ SWR. That experience was impetus for AAWSAP bc it had an effect on him & he realized that 2 understand UFOs, we needed 2 also study related phenomena. Bigelow was a perfect fit & nobody else bid https://twitter.com/blackvaultcom/status/1424799100109660160

Yes, "impetus" bc Lacatski had an experience at SWR & the UFO/paranormal bid was put out after Reid, Inouye & Stevens had their pow wow. Nothing you've said or tweeted proves a setup. You're misunderstanding.

Replying to @_Desmoden @IanHeller and 5 others

Elizondo CLAIMED the videos went through a "declassification process." That is disputed. Elizondo CLAIMED he was the director/head of AATIP. That is disputed. etc. All things @alejandrotrojas either does NOT report on, or spins with PROVABLE erroneous "facts."

'Can Lue truly be believed tho joe?'

Simply put, yes.

But that doesn't mean that somewhere, there isn't some deep black craft that defies gravity. He left the door open a tiny bit. Tune into my show tomorrow (pinned to my Twitter page) & see what Via thinks about his sighting.

1) He wanted this program outed but still has to keep his mouth shut.

2) He never thought Davis' notes would leak (Mitchell's death) & now he just has to keep quiet bc the program is still a USAP & that's just how it is.

I'm not overhyping anything. Historical UFO data, related hardware & then data confiscated by the MIB-like folks (that Lue mentioned that his close colleague encountered) is what we want. AAWSAP/AATIP data is important but only a small part it. Lue, Mellon are VERY important. https://twitter.com/Logan_910/status/1423736485912662026

That's total speculation since we have no other civilization to compare ourselves to. Just bc a civilization has mastered interstellar travel, doesn't necessarily mean they're all a bunch of nice guys. https://twitter.com/realsiferd/status/1423380361254359041 @Enterprise2MARS @AP In my Wilson/Davis MegaBlog, I transcribed a Davis interview where he explains how info. is collected on these programs w/o being read into them. You worked on UFOs? Really? So did I but in a different program. You don't have a need to know for my program but I'll share this...

I still think some aspects of the phenomenon may be a threat or, at the very least, a negative influence on us or use us for selfish reasons. Will they blow up the White House and engage in all out war? Doubtful. But there are other ways to mess with us. Just opinions.

Hinted at... http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E8DNOtKVoAMaoMs.jpg

Question from Laura: I'm wondering if you have ever, or do you currently, have any contractual agreements with any aerospace industries or defense contractors such as the DOCPER?

LE: Uh, Laura. (laughs) Great, question (laughs). Yeah, I'm not prepared right now to discuss any affiliation that I might have with the U.S. government. Not because of me, it's out of respect for the government. I've often said, if you want to know if I have any affiliation with the government, ask the government. And yes, I know people have and yes, I know the government's come back and said, "There's nothing to see here, folks." So, okay, if that's their storyline, then that's their storyline. But don't be surprised if that storyline changes. I want to be very careful, I don't want to put the government and any kind of bad spot so I'll leave it at that. Great question. Obviously, you've done some homework but unfortunately, that's a question that I'm going to abstain from, at least at least for this conversation.

RD: Laura, that was a boss question, I'm just gonna say.

LE: Yeah, you had me squirming (laughs).

RD: It causes many, many mistaken UFO reports. But back to the the so-called drone encounters. I mean, does it seem realistic to you, that the Russians or Chinese would actually be able to have drones that could come right up to these Navy destroyers, which are equipped with incredible, electronic detection systems, and just like…appear. Because as far as we've been able to learn, that seems to be the case. Like, whatever these things were, just…boom, came right there.

So you didn't see that term in the New York Times story. But that's what the program was called in the beginning: AAWSAP. And the twenty-two million dollars that was spent, that you saw, did not go to the AATIP…the study of flying saucers, the program in the Pentagon. It went to Bob Bigelow. It was put out in a contract. It was advertised on the federal network. Bigelow was the only one who applied for the bid. That was in 2007, is when the groundwork was laid for it. 2008 is when the contract was awarded. And it made sense that he would get it. For one thing, he was willing to put up the facilities. He was wiling to pay for buildings and changes to buildings. He spent a million dollars of his own money preparing for this.

The money came in and I know there are a lot of questions about twenty-two million dollars, which, to Bob Bigelow, a billionaire, it's not a lot of money. He hired 54 people, at one point. The names of all of those people. you can find them online. He advertised online for scientists and investigators. And he hired them. And he sent them to work. And some of the work that they did was at Skinwalker Ranch and a lot of the work was creating a gigantic database. Maybe the biggest UFO database in the world.

It included personal investigations. They sent out investigators to UFO hot spots. They'd get reports and do these investigations to try to figure things out. Some of the stuff… involved medical effects on people. Deleterious medical effects on people who encountered UFOs and other kinds of paranormal and supernatural phenomena. It was a gigantic database that included data that was acquired from foreign governments. It analyzed incidents like the Tic Tac. Not just Tic Tac but other, dramatic incidents like that. That went on for three years and then the money was pulled. And it's unfortunate because if that had gone

Working on my final cheat sheet & Qs for @rosscoulthart. Finished his book late last night & I REALLY enjoyed it.

Here's link to the show starting at 4pm PDT and I'll tweet out the "call in" link later. Viewer Qs will come 7 hours into the show. :grinning_face:

@ThorntonVallery Seeing how she rolled her eyes at homeopathic medicine, I don't think she (or the people who put that video together) would be open minded enough to consider Bengston's placebo theory. I'm going to interview him at a future date.

@ThorntonVallery Watched it. Interesting but the ending ruined it w/the mention, eye roll & shot & homeopathic medicine.

Begston thinks the group getting the medicine and the control group getting the placebo are somehow connected on a non-physical level. Resonant bonding is what he calls it.

1 #ufo August of 2001, while he was recuperating from a heart attack, Oke Shannon received a call from Admiral Wilson. Wilson wanted to know if Oke could vouch for the credibility & trustworthiness of Dr. Eric Davis. This is all in the W/D notes. Oh yeah!

- Said NO! Could not be – not possible!!
- Why, I asked – where did it come from?
- Program manager said they didn't know where it was from [they had some ideas on this] – it was technology that was not of this Earth – not made by man – not by human hands
- Said were trying to understand and exploit technology; their program was going on for years and years with very slow progress
- Agonizingly slow with little or no success – painful lack of collaboration to get help from outside community of experts and facilities to assist effort – must remain isolated and use own facilities and cleared personnel – tough environment to work – about 400-800 (bigot list count) workers varying in number with funding or personnel changes
- Miller questions asked:
  - Roswell – craft/bodies/autopsies
  - Holloman AFB Landing
  - MJ-12 and leaked docs
  - Zamora & Bentwaters, etc.
- They were mum – declined to discuss these
- TW threatened to go to SAPOC to complain, gain access to their program
- They said go ahead and do what you must
- I was angry because they defied my authority to be read-in with good logical reason – wouldn't budge
- Their tone was very testy/terse throughout conversation

AFAIK, ED wasn't sent by NIDS to interview Wilson. Davis didnâ□□t work for Bigelow after April 2002 (laid off by Mr. B) & wasnâ□□t in contact w/him again until 2008.

Oke's religious views (and Covid denial) are there for all to see on his FB page.

And if you have a problem with my question (note the ?), I don't know what to tell you.

IF Wilson was denied access to a CR/RE program that houses an intact craft not made by human hands, it changes everything. So I'm not worried about getting in trouble for sharing that FB post. If that happens, so be it. IF an intact craft exists, it is SPECIES-CHANGING info. #ufo https://twitter.com/TheUfoJoe/status/1565135260777451520

LONG DESCRIPTION OF SIGHTING REPORT

mufoncms.com/cgi-bin/report_handler.pl?req=view_long_desc&id=124552&rnd=

Long Description of Sighting Report

My name is[name redacted], I'm a 52-year-old retired F/A-18 pilot and tactical jet instructor for the US Navy/Marines. My current position is chief pilot for a corporate flight department out of Palomar CA "KCRQ". I hold Airline Transport Ratings in single engine, multi engine and helicopters. I'm also a CFI/II/MEI as well as Helicopter CFI/II. I have a Bachelor of Science degree in Aeronautical Science from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University as well as US Navy/Marine Corps aircraft accident investigations / accident investigator for the US Marine Corps.

On Aug 18, 2022, at approximately 03:20 while in our Gulfstream G650, call sign TWY670, in route from Miami "KOPF" to Maui "PHOG" at FL470 off the coast of CA, I witnessed 2 AUP's high above our aircraft in a circular formation. Me being a retired Marine F/A-18 pilot who has conducted many aircraft intercepts throughout my career, immediately reported it to LA center.

LA Center informed us that they had no known or unknown primary or secondary RADAR contacts in or around us or in their airspace period. I then turned our Traffic Collision Avoidance System "TCAS" to ABOVE mode also to receive no active aircraft activity as well.

As I was continuing my reporting with LA center when another 2 UAP's joined the formation. I then saw what I believed was a shooting star, but it stopped descending and joined the other 4 UAP's in their circular orbit. I took my iPhone out and attempted to record the UAP's as they moved over our aircraft.

I lost sight of them and continued to discuss the encounter with ATC. Another aircraft also reported the incident, and LA center reported it to the FAA Presidential Aerial Security Administration in Washington DC.

I received a phone call from LA center and also talked to the FAA Presidential Aerial Security office in Washington DC. Both agencies were very interested in the encounter. I was informed other aircraft had reported seeing the UAP's over the phone but declined to acknowledge it over the radio.

The framework we present here is based on such an apparent contradiction, because we will argue that UAP can be thought of both as physical and as "psychic". We hope that it will prove stimulating as a unified approach to a puzzling phenomenon that presents both undeniable physical effects suggesting a technological device or craft and psychic effects reminiscent of the literature on poltergeists and psychokinetic phenomena. Here we use the word "psychic" in the sense of an interaction between physical reality and human consciousness. As one example among many, It will be recalled that the events at Fatima involved luminous phenomena, atmospheric and thermal effects, and descriptions of an apparently metallic disk in the sky, while many of the 70,000 witnesses also experienced spiritual and psychological effects. The main percipients reported psychic states conducive to a form of extrasensory communication with a non-human entity assumed to be the Virgin Mary.

That time (August 2018) I found out History had bought a show from DeLonge (Unidentified), wrote a blog about it & then had to kill it bc the person who told me didn't expect me to write about it. Whoops! Here's it is, as it sits on my blog, unpublished. Three years too late!

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E7b-5jlVUAUy2Ij.jpg

So, over the past few weeks, I've been having a conversation (in person and then via email) with a friend of mine about various personalities in ufology trying to sell TV shows about their work. My friend, who I'll call Mrs. U (could be a female or male) and who I've known for close to fifteen years, is well aware of my UFO obsession. She's made fun of that obsession plenty of times over the years as she's a big-time skeptic. Mrs. U sent me a sizzle reel (a short trailer) of a UFO-related show she's working on that she thought I would find interesting. It was well done and I have no doubt it will be bought by one of the cable networks.

So, yesterday I emailed her the clip that To The Stars Academy had recently posted and included this note:

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E7b-5ioVIAES2ml.jpg

This is the show that will compete with your [UFO] show. It's from the Tom DeLonge fronted group, "To The Stars Academy." Not sure if they've sold this show yet but I'm pretty sure they're trying. Production value is very good.

Mrs. U immediately responded:

"Yes. This was sold to History."

What? "The History Channel" bought the show? I wasn't expecting to hear this news as I was only sharing the DeLonge clip to give her an idea of what the competition was working on. I wrote back and asked her to clarify: "Which one was sold to History? Your [UFO] show or the DeLonge show?"

"The DeLonge one," was the reply.

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E7b-5i5VgAUH7Cx.png

So, there you have it. Mrs. U is as solid as they come when it comes to news related to the television industry and I have no reason to doubt her. But we won't know for sure until "History" makes the announcement. When will that be? I don't know. And I think it will be a series and not just a one off documentary.

Is this the show DeLonge was teasing back in April?

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E7b-5jLVIAAwsdM.jpg

I've worked as a videographer, camera operator and sometime director of photography in the television business for thirty years. I've seen some really bad shows come and go. Many of them had great content but were shot poorly. And others looked great but the content was either boring or focused on sensationalism. Unfortunately, I worked a few seasons on "Maury," which has been on the air for almost three decades. So, you just never know which shows will have longevity and good ratings as the formula for a successful show can be more complicated than E = MC2. :-)

DeLonge and To The Stars have an opportunity to present a show that not only looks great (if the rest of it looks like that clip they released) but also take a serious, non-sensationalistic look at a subject many people feel could be the most important in the history of mankind. I'm excited to see what they come up with and look forward to hearing the details when "History" makes the announcement.

Dr. Eric Davis: There have been crashes. The superpowers on the Earth have had their share of crashes and they have recovered the vehicles from their crashes. That's why Jacques Vallee and I agree that even though these things behave like a conscious, spiritual, psychic entity, they do have an advanced technology, they have hardware. And there's a craft. And there's occupants or UFOnauts…that Vallee calls them. So there's UFOnauts running these craft, whatever they may be.

They have that technology. We do, too. And it's a very super-sensitive topic because it's something that your listeners are probably going to be shocked at. Probably a minute fraction, like less than one, one thousandth (1/1000) or one one-hundred thousandth (1/100,000) of the people with the need to know access, need to know authorization, and security clearances to be involved with that type of work, are the only ones that know. The vast majority of the rest of government really doesn't know. And that's why one hand, like the right hand doesn't know what the left hand is doing…virtually because of the stove-piping that goes on in compartmentalized programs. You just can't knock on doors and say, "Hey! Here's who I am. I've got clearances but not the right ones. I don't have a need to know but I wanna know, so can you tell me? And you're going to be lied to, because that's the rule."

You don't want to tell the enemy anything when this guy who's knocking on your door asking you about UFO crashes, could be an asset for the Soviet Union or the Russian Federation, or the Chinese PLA, or

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E7aC83XXEAUDRwW.jpg

5. He confirms there was jamming indication. This is now corroborated by Fravor and Dieteich, in addition to the 99.9 rng reading on the FLIR. 99.9 doesn't appear ONLY with jamming, but it does appear with jamming.

6. The airspace at the CAP was vacant of friendly or commerical aircraft.

7. He was able to identify all aircraft in the wider battlespace.

8. Underwood "aggressively maneuvered his aircraft" to reacquire the object.

9. Princeston had continuous track of object until intercept.

10. The object's disappearance was corroborated by the Princeston, AND E-2 Hawkeye. "...and THEY were like, 'negative radar contact' their radars were clean".

9 BTW, he is now a commander and has been in the reserves for 10 years.

People talk to him every day about the Tic Tac at his job with other engineers, who are into this subject. More than he is. They say, â□□Whatâ□□s up, UFO man?â□□ :flying_saucer: :alien:

3 I've never doubted DeLonge met w/these folks & they told him amazing things. But did they feed him part bs to scare us so that when the real story comes out, folks will be like, "Oh, is THAT all it is?" This is something Kit Green suggested in, "Mirage Men," the book.

Ross :backhand_index_pointing_down_medium-light_skin_tone:
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E7Z6XmhVIAIMKGa.png

Tom DeLonge also divulged that when he flew to Colorado Springs to meet with serving officers from the US Air Force's Space Command, a high-ranking adviser implied there were multiple UAP crash retrievals beyond the 1940s. 'I said, "I'm gonna' be talking about some crashes, the crashes in the '40s". There was a pause, and he says, "Why just the '40s?" Gets you thinking a little bit,' DeLonge said.[10]

However, it needs to be emphasised that nothing in any of the leaked Podesta emails proves the truth of what was claimed in these briefings by these military insiders on alien visitations to this planet, or that Roswell and other purported crashes of extra-terrestrial craft happened or that the recovery of alien corpses happened. Maybe what DeLonge was told was part of some elaborate military disinformation program. It

1 Over the past few years, @tomdelonge said many things some feel is nonsense. Or, as Admiral Wilson said: "Poppycock!" I would think @rosscoulthart, a respected , award-winning investigative reporter, would dismiss Tom's claims outright in order to protect his reputation. Nope. http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E7Z27riUYAQOYiT.png

I know what you are thinking. The only sensible explanation for this is that what Tom DeLonge said to George Knapp and Joe Rogan about a gigantic secret conspiracy to hide the truth of UFOs/UAPs is a huge steaming pile of bull dung. He was never told this by anyone. His supposed sources in government are a fiction of his lurid imagination. He made up all this stuff about flying around North America meeting The General in an airport hangar and Skunk Works in its underground bunker. DeLonge needs help. It simply did not happen.

Well, I wish I could be so sure. This is where the story really starts to get crazy interesting . . . thanks to some dastardly Russian hackers.

The Black Vault @blackvaultcom · Jul 23, 2020 ···

Actually, they said Mr. (Dr.? why wasn't he referenced as one?) Davis said he briefed them on other worldly vehicles.

And I am sorry - but if that were true - those briefings and the knowledge of them, if they were speaking about alien vehicles, would be classified.

> Mr. Davis, who now works for Aerospace Corporation, a defense contractor, said he gave a classified briefing to a Defense Department agency as recently as March about retrievals from "off-world vehicles not made on this earth."
> Mr. Davis said he also gave classified briefings on retrievals of unexplained objects to staff members of the Senate Armed Services Committee on Oct. 21, 2019, and to members of the Senate Intelligence Committee two days later.

@elf56425580 For some, Bigfoot is okay. But psychic Bigfoot? No way!!!

This is covered well in "Hunt for the Skinwalker." The latter part of that book is a must read, IMO. Covers various angles of the phenomenon.

Lue on the the Air Force and UFOs...

The bad and the good.

From this past Saturday's event...

(Haven't checked for typos yet) http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E68n3diVoAUI844.png

So, not too long ago, an individual saw that the Task Force was doing quite well. People stood up and the Navy was doing its thing and everybody was supposed to report their incidents to the Task Force. So, an Air Force officer, I'm not gonna say the rank or name or a station assignment duty, or assignments, had come to the Task Force and said, "Hey, I get information to report." They said, "Sounds great!" And they reported it. And we thought there was this new collaborative, relationship. All of a sudden, everything goes silent. And when the person was recontacted, he's like, "Look, I got in trouble. They did not want me reporting anything to you guys so I'm just gonna have to report this internally." So, that's the bad news.

Now, the good news is that for every one of those cases, there's individuals, and again, another individual who I will not name. Maybe one day, this person will become public. In fact, if they're watching the show, they'll know exactly what I'm talking about. There's a senior person that I worked with a USDI, that happens to be in a very, very senior position now in the US Air Force, who I read onto this program, tangentially, because I needed some help, back in probably 2015, 2014 timeframe. And that person is in a very senior position now. And that person's very sympathetic to this cause, to this effort, and has offered to support this effort. And, by the way, with a lot of authority, this person has, in a really key position, to support this effort, and to help the Task Force and create a much more comprehensive reporting capability, including Air Force equities. So that's a big deal.

There's no "if" about a copy coming from Mitchell's estate. Davis told that to me in a quote/comment I used for the blog and he told it to Greenstreet on camera. Plus, Coulthart has been all over that.

"What Happened In Vegas..."

By @OmniTalkRadio

Mitchell in 2010. Certainly looks like his "contact" was Eric Davis & The Admiral is referenced.

Not proof but people just need to use their brains. Who do u think he was talking about?

https://www.ufojoe.net/wilson-davis-what-happened-in-vegas

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E67g-a1UUAA_SlV.jpg

Greer told Commander Miller, who called me and said, "Yes, Greer heard from the admiral, and he's confirmed that there was an office in the Pentagon funding all of this." Subsequently, another contact of mine, who must also remain nameless because he's on classified programs, encountered the Admiral in Las Vegas, where he had been looking for and trying to get into the so-called "strategic access program" around the UFO incident and had been denied.

Charlie Wiser I have offered to co-write a book with Travis, I call, "Amazing Adventures with Close Encounters", but Travis flatly refused. Aside from our experience in 1975, we had another amazing adventure in 1970. We have also had other such experiences, but separately. I am sure such a book written together would be worth untold amounts of money, but again, Travis refused to co-write. Judging from the way Travis lives (of which I have taken many photos), he is a hoarder of everything, and especially money.

@CohibaCacique Thatâ□□s not what Iâ□□m saying.

Whatever the reason, itâ□□s done without our consent, we should stop it if we can. You analogy makes it sound like â□□theirâ□□ reason to abduct us is to help. Maybe. But lots of data (anecdotes from abductees) doesnâ□□t point to that.

https://twitter.com/_/status/1417152147095920640
I've never offered any conclusions on abductions & their purpose. With ones that appear to be physical, people are taken w/o their consent. New Agers will say, "Well, they signed a contract between lives & agreed to that." That's a cop out, IMO. If we can stop them, we should. https://twitter.com/CohibaCacique/status/1417147800966492164

@RGoddardishere @SilvaRecord @MiddleOfMayhem @Liberty4Life23 @ThanosAlpha @SteveTh2020 The frustration from folks like Danny & I comes from the fact that a guy (Steven) who hosts a UFO show & who writes articles on UFOs & comments on Twitter all the time about UFOs, & did an excellent interview w/Davis, can't go to Amazon & order a Vallee book & start from there.

He learned via Ed Dames. Not a great start. Then there was the Hale Bopp fiasco. Disaster! But apparently, some folks behind the scenes value their (Farsight) data so I keep it specific claims in the "maybe" bin.

But RVing overall is legit. Just need feedback 2 confirm the data.

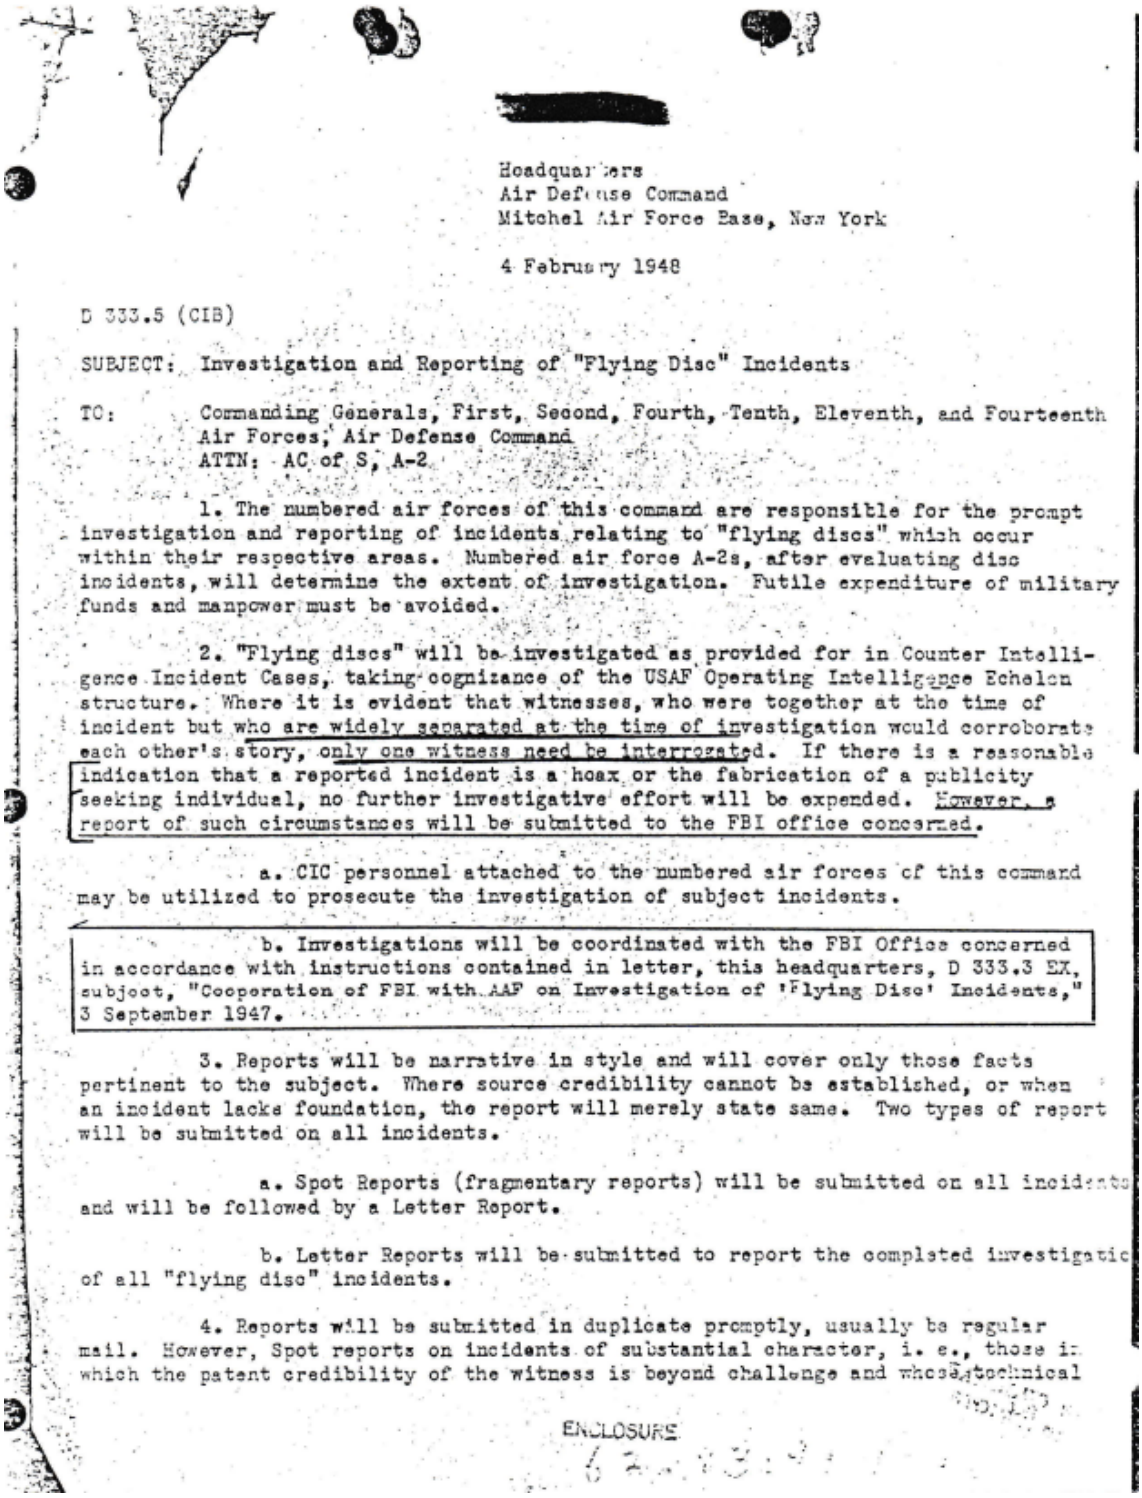
RT @Borders750: A little something from February 1948... "Investigation & Reporting of 'Flying Disc' Incidents": http://pbs.twimg.com/media/Fbf0G0zWQAgbawb.png

---



Headquarters
Air Defense Command
Mitchel Air Force Base, New York

4 February 1948

D 333.5 (CIB)

SUBJECT: Investigation and Reporting of "Flying Disc" Incidents

TO: Commanding Generals, First, Second, Fourth, Tenth, Eleventh, and Fourteenth Air Forces, Air Defense Command
ATTN: AC of S, A-2

1. The numbered air forces of this command are responsible for the prompt investigation and reporting of incidents relating to "flying discs" which occur within their respective areas. Numbered air force A-2s, after evaluating disc incidents, will determine the extent of investigation. Futile expenditure of military funds and manpower must be avoided.

2. "Flying discs" will be investigated as provided for in Counter Intelligence Incident Cases, taking cognizance of the USAF Operating Intelligence Echelon structure. Where it is evident that witnesses, who were together at the time of incident but who are widely separated at the time of investigation would corroborate each other's story, only one witness need be interrogated. If there is a reasonable indication that a reported incident is a hoax or the fabrication of a publicity seeking individual, no further investigative effort will be expended. However, a report of such circumstances will be submitted to the FBI office concerned.

a. CIC personnel attached to the numbered air forces of this command may be utilized to prosecute the investigation of subject incidents.

b. Investigations will be coordinated with the FBI Office concerned in accordance with instructions contained in letter, this headquarters, D 333.3 EX, subject, "Cooperation of FBI with AAF on Investigation of 'Flying Disc' Incidents," 3 September 1947.

3. Reports will be narrative in style and will cover only those facts pertinent to the subject. Where source credibility cannot be established, or when an incident lacks foundation, the report will merely state same. Two types of report will be submitted on all incidents.

a. Spot Reports (fragmentary reports) will be submitted on all incidents and will be followed by a Letter Report.

b. Letter Reports will be submitted to report the completed investigatic of all "flying disc" incidents.

4. Reports will be submitted in duplicate promptly, usually by regular mail. However, Spot reports on incidents of substantial character, i. e., those in which the patent credibility of the witness is beyond challenge and whose technical @Condorman6 I didn't include adversary but should have. The stuff I'm talking about is where adversarial has been ruled out. Like in Omaha & Russell. Despite Jimmy Church's constant bashing of the vids leaked 2 Corbell. We know those aren't the best vids we have but would Jimmy prefer nada?

2 Of course, I ran out of room to include...

All human technology (I give this a .0000001% chance of being true), or a mix of our tech and "their" tech, whoever "they" are (I think we MAY have been able to master SOME of this tech). Should I include the fake alien invasion? Nah.

Is there any evidence beyond Elizondo's re-tweet that the United States (or any other major power) has actually used its high-value military assets as "bait" to attract UFOs? Amazingly, the answer is "yes". In a recent episode of the Sara Carter Show, Elizondo was asked to comment on a remark made by the former Soviet Air Force General Vasili Alexejev where he claimed that the Soviet military had conducted experiments in which they successfully "lured" UFOs to their location! Elizondo's response was a sobering glimpse into the serious national security implications of the UFO phenomenon.

Carter: Do you (Luis Elizondo) believe what he is saying, and, if so, what is your guess on what that might be? What could the Russians have done?

Elizondo: To answer simply: "Yes, absolutely", I agree wholeheartedly with that assessment. The problem is the how. And I want to be careful not to say too much and only because I still have a security clearance and I think there may be efforts underway to continue that line of experimentation.

I agree. I mean, I realize it's very conspiratorial and we don't have any evidence to support that theory. But, IF that turns out to be true & we can prove it? No mercy. Same with Shari Adamiak (Greer assistant) & former Congressman, Steven Schiff, who looked into Roswell. https://twitter.com/dsmethurst66/status/1415629853701849088

Well, Davis wasn't working for NIDS at the time of the meeting w/Wilson. He still may have been informally representing them/Bigelow. And if you read the notes, you'll see that Oke Shannon is the one who convinced Wilson to meet with Davis. No strings needed to be pulled.

@PostDisclosure IMO, it wouldn't be used unless it was needed. And US hasn't needed that type of tech 2 win any wars, battles or skirmishes.

IF we have it, why unveil it & risk bringing down entire world's financial system w/a new type of (allegedly) free (& potentially, dangerous) energy?

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E6ID4NJVUBAnm4t.png

I'll just tell you this. I am fairly certain that this is an accurate representation of a meeting that really did happen. It was typed up, not to distribute to the public, but to share with a very tight group of professionals at the NIDS Science Advisory Board. Among them was Dr. Edgar Mitchell. It looks like Dr. Edgar Mitchell, after he died, his personal papers got into the hands of members of his family and then have dribbled out to the UFO community, and I think that's where this came from.

This meeting happened. Admiral Wilson denies it. I think he'll always deny it. Dr. Eric Davis is not somebody who makes this stuff up. He certainly doesn't make it up and then hand it to his boss, Bob Bigelow and the Science Advisory Board, made up out of whole cloth. You may not believe that the contents of what is discussed in this meeting is true, and we have no way to verify if all this is true or not. But did the meeting take place? Yes, it did and this memo is an accurate reflection of what happened. I think that…remember, at the

was a meeting w/Admiral Wilson in Las Vegas & these notes are an account of that meeting, typed out after the meeting happened.

Two different animals. RVing was used under controlled conditions, in a lab & in gov't, for decades. Sometimes, it works really well. Other times, not so much. Not a fair comparison. But I have no reason 2 doubt CE5 bc I think we're telepathic beings & not unique in Universe, IMO https://twitter.com/a01744/status/1414129952086061058

We've done (and continue to do) some horrific things to our relatives. @g_knapp did his part helping to rescue the space chimps and he continues to do his part in shining a light on animal abuse & neglect. Wild horses here in Nevada is a big issue.

https://www.ufojoe.net/transcript-george-knapp-at-ufo-megacon-over-the-years-the-pentagon-lied-and-theyre-lying-now/ https://twitter.com/HighStangness/status/1414040116331532290

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E5-vbM_UcAEpJ3n.png

I went to Washington to do a story about the space chimps. The space chimps were the chimpanzees that were raised to go into space, instead of astronauts. It was less dangerous, they figured, to send a monkey or an an ape, instead of a human. So they had these chimps and by the late 90s, the chimps were no longer needed so they and their offspring were shipped off to this medical research facility in Mexico. And they were being injected with diseases. It was just a terrible, terrible thing. And I had been doing some stories about chimpanzees and captive chimps in people's backyards. And I wanted to do a story on it. And I asked Harry Reid for help. He said, "Sure I'll help you. Come back to Washington, I want you to meet somebody." I go back to Washington and the person he wanted me to meet was John Glenn. And John Glenn was interested in UFOs. And he had had a conversation with Harry Reid about it before and we had a conversation about it then, so long as I kept it quiet. Which I did.

My only point there is...

Doty was used in Cosmic Hoax to point a finger at humans when it comes to abductions. Greer believes ETs are not hostile so that fits the narrative. But Doty doesn't believe that. Or, at very least, his stories (true or not) don't tell same narrative.

Waived-unacknowledged...

From one of my sources and published in my Wilson/Davis MegaBlog from 2020...

How the crash retrieval program was hidden...

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E5vTaf2VUAI1yEP.png

“Various people within the United States government, in positions of oversight and who you would think had access to all UAP programs, did not find the UAP crash retrieval program when they looked because they never knew of its existence. I, and others in my circle, have discussed the topic with them of how one cannot find waived-unacknowledged SAPs that operate outside of Section 119 of Title 10. In fact, a DoD office can create a shell company and then transfer funds to it under an unremarkable commercial defense services contract. Then that shell company turns around and gives a subcontract to a third-party aerospace/defense firm that hosts a waived-unacknowledged SAP that operates outside of Sect. 119 of Title 10. This usually hides (making the audit trail terminate at the shell company) the flow of money going to the third party company that’s running a waived-unacknowledged SAP where a UAP crash retrieval program is hidden.

Davis told us, “NIDS folded in October 2004 and ceased routine intensive staff visits to the ranch back in 2001. I was the team leader from 1999-2001.”

“There were multiple voices that spoke in unison telepathically,” Davis candidly explained, regarding the Skinwalker attack, “The voices were monotone males with a very terse, threatening tone … Four senses were in their control so there was no odor, sound, smell, or touch, and overall body motion was frozen (as in the muscles that would not respond). Afterwards, when completely freed from this event — after the dark shadow disappeared — there was no lingering or residual odors, sounds, etc. in the immediate environment.”

Was Bob Bigelow’s remote ranch possessed by an evil supernatural entity?

“How do you interpret that?” I asked Davis. “Sounds like the Exorcist?”

“It does sound like it,” Davis responded, “But it wasn’t in the category of demonic possession. More like an intelligence giving a warning to the staff by announcing its presence and that they (the staff) were being watched by this presence. Demonic possessions are not short lived nor as benign as this, and they always have a religious context.”

What, exactly, was behind the reported experiences at Skinwalker Ranch? Was an unknown and highly capable and intelligent entity guarding its territory?

I'm not talking about why WSO was excited. I'm saying that IF Go Fast is not going fast (like everybody & their brother (including me) has said), we need to correct that. Otherwise, we look just as bad as the debunkers who refuse to look at the evidence. Still may be anomalous. https://twitter.com/buffcommacu/status/1411362960694517760 se: No, in 1983, that's when I went over to the manager from the BLM. That was when my boys were already grown, and I asked her if I could have a permit to get my boys to take a look at where I was born, you know.

Chapter Twelve - A Trinity of Secrets

ola: In other words, you were never stopped? But did Reme ever tell you that he saw the file on this case? That the Governor of Washington State let him see the file, because he helped get her elected. So she pulled out a document, and it's in the Atomic Energy Commission Files.

OF COURSE! I thought. No wonder the case was never in Blue Book any Air force records: the Atomic secrets were kept under their own stem of P, Q, and R clearances. It wouldn't even be accessible to scientists ith clearances above Top Secret from most Intelligence agencies, or the st of the Executive Branch, all the way to the President, except by special quirement.

And that realization changed everything.

For folks unfamiliar w/remote viewing, Simeon's tweet represents everything you usually receive before you start "viewing."

Sometimes, if the goal is to locate someone or learn about their current physical or mental state, the viewer will be shown/given a photo, & that's it.

Even though some of us suspected it, nobody has ever confirmed that there was a video of the encounter between Fravor and the Tic Tac. Brand new information and it comes directly from Lue.

3 Now that Lue has confirmed we have footage of Fravor encounter w/the Tic Tac, I hope folks involved will tell us what camera shot it. FLIR or HUD cam? Did Douglas Kurth capture video as he loitered high above the scene? This is a HUGE deal so we need 2 know how it was recorded.

2021-07-02T07:21:42+00:00

https://twitter.com/_/status/1410861219842461696

2 that a video exists either from Fravorâ□□s or @DietrichVFA41â□□s HUD cam, bc Fravor said he didnâ□□t have an ATFLIR pod on his jet. Alex, did you & Slaight have a pod? I think u (Alex) said you were too distracted (by Tic Tac) 2 hit record on HUD. So where did this footage come from?

If people r buying into a prediction that bad aliens r coming to kick our ass in 2026, that's approaching cult-like material, IMO, & has potential 2B dangerous.

Then again, if Dave is right, & that DOES happen, the good aliens will prevent them entry bc Rey H has positive data:upside-down_face:

Only theories I've heard:

1) They're based underwater so that's why we always see them there

2) They hang out near nuclear aircraft carriers (in the water) bc they're interested in all nukes

3) Lue suggested that maybe they "mine" the hydrogen from water for use in propulsion https://t.co/kvwt9XLrT7

However it's done, I think/speculate that "they" are making some of these craft. And the "they" I'm referring to are Earth-based. Why do that? Maybe it's the only way they can physically interact with us? :man_shrugging_light_skin_tone: https://twitter.com/0mega_Point/status/1409914564615999496

2 My favorite theory is that the ultraterrestrial intelligence is creating the saucers & beings inside using nanotechnology and 3D printing. That's my simplistic (bc I'm simplistic) way of explaining it. DeLonge explained it in one of his interviews & others have touched on it.

Solid report with a few comments from @DietrichVFA41.

Analysis: "Don't rule out aliens."

"The report says there's no evidence these objects came from outer space."

Who said they're from outer space? Dig deeper, media folks!

"Through the Intelligence Authorization Act, the Congress and the Intelligence Committee required the preparation and release of today's report, as it has become increasingly clear that unidentified aerial phenomena are not a rare occurrence and our government needs a unified way to gather, analyze, and contextualize these reports.

"We should approach these questions without preconceptions to encourage a thorough, systematized analysis of the potential national security and flight safety risks posed by unidentified aerial phenomena, whether they are the result of a foreign adversary, atmospheric or other aerial phenomena, space debris, or something else entirely.

"We look forward to reviewing the report and will host a classified briefing for the Members of the House Intelligence Committee later this year based on its findings and to build on the Member briefing held last week. As we continue to receive updates, we will share what we can with the American people as excessive secrecy will only spur more speculation."

"The American people now know a small portion of what I and my colleagues in the Pentagon have been privy to: That these UAP are not secret US technology, that they do not seem to belong to any known allies or adversaries, and that our intelligence services have yet to identify a terrestrial explanation for these extraordinary vehicles. Out of 144 incidents, the Task Force was only able to identify one. This conversation is only just beginning." - Lue Elizondo, former director of AATIP

Read some of @DeanRadin's books or watch his lectures bc u really come across as ignorant here.

Many times, intuitives or remote viewers r just wrong & they can't tell they're wrong until they get feedback. This is why Green focuses on data (medical, usually) that can verified.

Nope. Remote viewing isn't the "talent." Psi is. RVing is a set of protocols designed 2 access information not accessible through your 5 senses. Or, psi. Everybody has this ability but only a select few are superstars. The only way to know if a RVr is accurate is to get feedback.

This really isn't that difficult.

Just because certain U.S. aviators saw something every day for two years, doesn't mean they were able to collect actionable data on every one, or even the majority of those cases. UAPTF focused on cases with data from sensors.

2 Kit Green on how many craft we have... http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E46O1MMUYAEsDNb.jpg

It may not have been much, but, hearing this information from a man of Kit's calibre and background, the effect was akin to a small nuclear device going off in your head. I asked him to repeat his statement, and he did – the aliens have been here. Kit casually mentioned the nickname the 'three bears', given to three of the ET craft allegedly in US possession. In a flash

A few Kit Green quotes from the book, "Mirage Men," published in 2010.

What's the Core Story?

How do we get it out to the public without panicking them?
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E46ODa9VkAA8fPe.jpg

Simply put, the core story, according to Kit, is this: 'The ETs came here, maybe once, maybe a few times. Either through accident or design, the US government acquired one of their craft. The only problem was that the physics that powered the craft were so advanced that for decades we humans have struggled to understand it or to replicate it.'
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E46N_lDVcAE5zZM.jpg they get rid of it, gradually making people more comfortable so that when they are finally presented with the truth, it's not as frightening as they had originally feared. "I can believe that," they'll say. "I didn't believe the crazy reptile stuff, I didn't believe that they were abducting babies from wombs on beams of light. But I can believe the part about the spaceship and the back-engineered technology."

'And that's what I think the meaning, the rationale, behind things like the Bob Emenegger film is. It's to help people not get sick later, to calm people down when they find out the truth.'
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E46ODa9VkAA8fPe.jpg

‘If you were to give them the core story right off the bat, they’d get sick, so you do it slowly over ten or twenty years. You put out a bunch of movies, a bunch of books, a bunch of stories, a bunch of Internet memes about reptilian aliens eating our children, about all the crazy stuff that we’ve seen recently in Serpo. Then one day you say, “Hey, all that stuff is nonsense, relax, it’s not that bad, you don’t have to worry, the reality is this” – and then you give them the real story.

‘Now that is a tried and tested desensitization model. And to the extent that there is a core story that is true, and to the extent that the people who want to get the core story out want to do it in a way that won’t hurt people, that’s what they do – they come up with a bunch of nonsense, and then

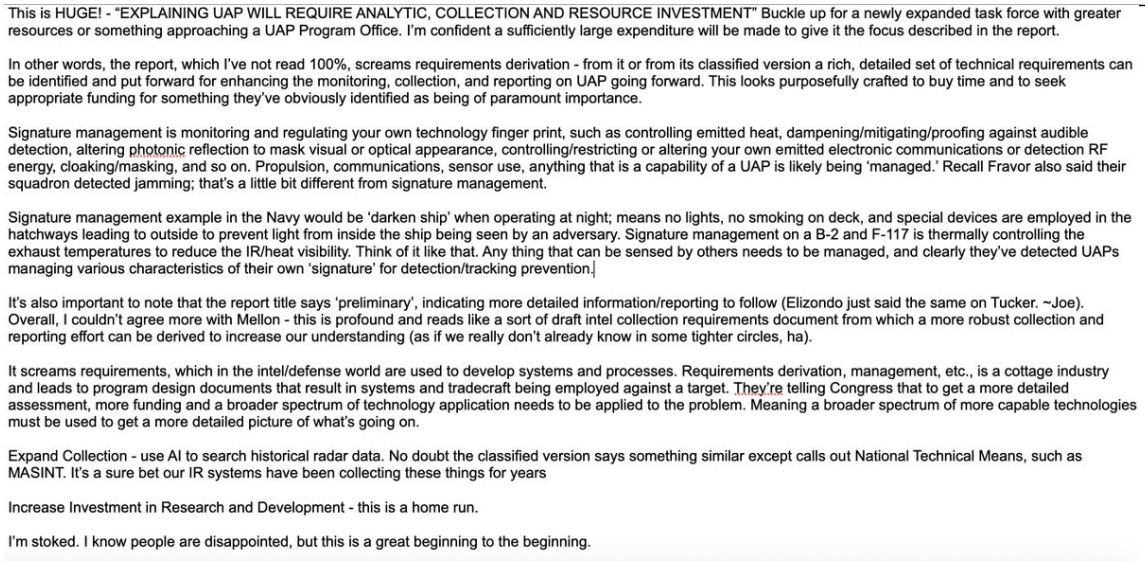
The UAPTF intends 2 focus additional analysis on the small number of cases where a UAP appeared to display unusual flight characteristics or signature management."

Earlier today, my intel friend explained SM to me & so much more. His feelings on the PRELIMINARY, ONI/UAP report. http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E4xKYtoUUAA_yym.jpg



This is HUGE! - "EXPLAINING UAP WILL REQUIRE ANALYTIC, COLLECTION AND RESOURCE INVESTMENT" Buckle up for a newly expanded task force with greater resources or something approaching a UAP Program Office. I'm confident a sufficiently large expenditure will be made to give it the focus described in the report.

In other words, the report, which I've not read 100%, screams requirements derivation - from it or from its classified version a rich, detailed set of technical requirements can be identified and put forward for enhancing the monitoring, collection, and reporting on UAP going forward. This looks purposefully crafted to buy time and to seek appropriate funding for something they've obviously identified as being of paramount importance.

Signature management is monitoring and regulating your own technology finger print, such as controlling emitted heat, dampening/mitigating/proofing against audible detection, altering photonic reflection to mask visual or optical appearance, controlling/restricting or altering your own emitted electronic communications or detection RF energy, cloaking/masking, and so on. Propulsion, communications, sensor use, anything that is a capability of a UAP is likely being 'managed.' Recall Fravor also said their squadron detected jamming; that's a little bit different from signature management.

Signature management example in the Navy would be 'darken ship' when operating at night; means no lights, no smoking on deck, and special devices are employed in the hatchways leading to outside to prevent light from inside the ship being seen by an adversary. Signature management on a B-2 and F-117 is thermally controlling the exhaust temperatures to reduce the IR/heat visibility. Think of it like that. Any thing that can be sensed by others needs to be managed, and clearly they've detected UAPs managing various characteristics of their own 'signature' for detection/tracking prevention.

It's also important to note that the report title says 'preliminary', indicating more detailed information/reporting to follow (Elizondo just said the same on Tucker. ~Joe). Overall, I couldn't agree more with Mellon - this is profound and reads like a sort of draft intel collection requirements document from which a more robust collection and reporting effort can be derived to increase our understanding (as if we really don't already know in some tighter circles, ha).

It screams requirements, which in the intel/defense world are used to develop systems and processes. Requirements derivation, management, etc., is a cottage industry and leads to program design documents that result in systems and tradecraft being employed against a target. They're telling Congress that to get a more detailed assessment, more funding and a broader spectrum of technology application needs to be applied to the problem. Meaning a broader spectrum of more capable technologies must be used to get a more detailed picture of what's going on.

Expand Collection - use AI to search historical radar data. No doubt the classified version says something similar except calls out National Technical Means, such as MASINT. It's a sure bet our IR systems have been collecting these things for years Increase Investment in Research and Development - this is a home run.

I'm stoked. I know people are disappointed, but this is a great beginning to the beginning.

Tell us how you REALLY feel, Danny! #MegaSheehan http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E4rZrMjVcAIAnz1.png

As far as the United States Central Intelligence Agency goes, you shouldn't believe a thing anybody says from the CIA because the whole institution exists for the purpose of lying and dissembling and mounting covert operations to deceive the American public and to promulgate and foster and promote the interests of major corporations around the world for the United States. And therefore, they are inherently, structurally, institutionally untrustworthy. And as long as a person remains inside any of those agencies, you can't believe a word they say. And the reality is is that even most of the people that come out of the CIA, you can't believe what they say. So you just zero them out, my opinion.

6 Why not release Zoom interview, @ap? It's potentially most important story in human history & u left out vital quotes & info. Why?

Regarding meeting w/IG, look who showed up @ meeting w/Elizondo & Sheehan. @usairforce. Why were they there? Are they finally going to come clean?
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E4nl90rVgAIUmOr.png

And then he was contacted by another division, he had a third division of the Inspector General's Office. This being space, missiles and nuclear oversight. And they asked to have an interview with him and wanted him to come to Washington. He insisted that I come with him and then they backed up a little but and they said, "Okay, we'll have your lawyer come with you but we're gonna have to bring our lawyer." So they brought their Defense Department, lawyer and then they brought another Assistant Inspector General, and then they brought a colonel to the United States Air Force. And then finally, they brought Randolph Strong himself, who had been the person who issued the memo about the more broad evaluation they were undertaking. So we showed up there on the 15th of June in Washington DC, and there's a whole new special installation that has been built, just recently, right near the Pentagon, which is a Department of Defense Office Building with an entirely separate, integrated set of computers that are now hooked into the other computers at the Pentagon, because 60% of the occupants of this building are the general's office, who are the ones like the internal affairs, investigators to be looking for wrongdoing is a rule if anybody in the Defense Department.

5 Lue: "'universe which we live in isnâ□□t quite so easy to explain.'

According to Sheehan, Elizondo told AP that the chances this was Russia or China were infinitesimal. Why wasn't that included in the article?

And when Lue explained this, why wasn't it also included?
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E4nldUJUUAIoJl6.png

And so, Dan Huff, who was one of the AP reporters who was interviewing Lue (On June 4th) said...he was kind of aghast. He said, "Well, if they're not ours and they're not from China or Russia, where are they from? At which point, Lue said, "Well, we've been looking at the possibility that they're extraterrestrial or even extra-dimensional." At which point, the AP reporter was just kind of completely confused, and he was saying, "Wait a second. Are you as the head of the investigation of the United States Pentagon saying that you think these are more likely to be extraterrestrial?" At which point, we pointed out that Dr. Eric Davis had actually briefed the Senate Intelligence Committee back in October of last year on this and said that the vast majority of the people from inside the Defense Department that have been investigating this phenomenon, hold the belief that these are off-world vehicles."

Sheehan's controversial answer is below. Transcript is MASSIVE.

@Occultjourneys: "When u hear somebody sayÂ this new conspiracy theory: Elizondo & all of these guys that represented the To The Stars Academy are just hired actors to push some new narrative. What do u say 2 that?" http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E4gqlxXVEAEDi2T.png

---

DS: That theory is a little unsophisticated. Hired actors? I mean, all the people, except for Tom DeLonge, the people that were involved in the To The Stars Academy - I use the past tense because it's almost defunct now - I have stated openly and publicly that I viewed that entire operation as basically a DIA, Defense Intelligence Agency, kind of covert operation to try to push a little bit forward on the agenda by revealing those three three famous videos etc. I still think that's true. But the fact of the matter is it certainly did trigger a step and advance. What we have to do is head off the effort to turn that step into a direction of viewing them as a threat and trying to get more money to deal with more weaponry for the Defense Department. We've got to head that thing off and I think we're engaged in that process right now. Even to the point with Lue Elizondo, the head of the AATIP program and who was at the To The Stars Academy, resigning from the the Academy in protest over the constant insistence that we treat these as a threat because he doesn't believe they're a threat. So he'll say that and he has said that now to the press, which he didn't say before.

Hey everyone, happy Pride Month. Right now, I am sitting in a moment of gratitude and relief. Sadly, I have agonized over this moment for the last 15 years. Only until recently, thanks to my family and friends, especially Connor, Cason, and Francis, did it seem possible for me to say publicly and proudly that I'm gay. I am also incredibly thankful for the NFL, my coaches, and fellow players for their support. I would not have been able to do this without them. From the jump, I was greeted with the utmost respect and acceptance.

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E4cH8tXXoAAiFTu.jpg

Lastly, I hope everyone can understand that I am just one person. I am a lanky walk-on who is living his dream. I only have a small window to achieve greatness in my sport and I owe it to my team, coaches, and Raider fans to be completely locked in and at my best for the upcoming season. I'm a private person, so I'd ask the media to give me some space as I navigate this exciting time in my life. Please do not take it personally if I decline an interview or am unable to answer your questions. Thank you everyone for your support.

Happy Pride Month and Go Raiders.

@Mark41782211 That Green interview is about so much more than the validity of the AA film. Folks who read it will realize that.

Well, I didn't say I would stunt any curiosity. But at the same time, I wouldn't go out of my way to push it on them. If they asked, I'd answer. Just like when I lectured to advanced 5th & 6th graders about UFOs and they asked about abductions, which I had avoided. I answered.

Edgar Mitchell Responds to Our Questions About His Sources

Over the past few days Dr. Edgar Mitchell has been kind enough to respond to our questions about statements he made in numerous media outlets that a high-level source known as "The Admiral" confirmed rumors of an extraterrestrial visitation.

Dr. Mitchell confirmed to us that "The Herald Tribune story and as augmented by the Richard Dolan follow-up is basically correct."

It was not in Bigelow's field of view.

AFAIK, Lacatski wasn't an experiencer at the time so not surprised a mainstream, DIA scientist (rocket scientist with PhDs in math & science) would be hesitant to share what he saw. https://twitter.com/UFOi1973/status/1405934229704282118 @Munook I'll say it again: Take it w/a major grain of salt. I've seen too many of these predictions come & go over the past 26 years. IMO, they're not helpful. Then again, Semivan said he has some friends who feel something is about to happen, so...

I also said, we'll see in 3 years.

@Marky_Simmo I don't think Ryan is credible on this stuff and I don't think Aquarius is upon us. Then again, some say it's already here. But others say the year 2500. Nobody really knows. Age of Pisces (birth of Jesus) was 2022 years ago. Each Age is 2160 yers. Math says we have a bit to go.

@Cosmonautica2 I've seen stuff like this since 1996 when I first got into it. We'll see by 2026 but I'm thinking...no.

2460 would be the next star alignment if we're talking precession and comparing Leo rising behind the Sphinx in the 10,500BC spring equinox.

Take w/a major grain of salt. I haven't heard anything like this from anybody I speak to about the phenomenon.

But we have a date so we'll be able to judge by 2026. Predictions are wrong 99% of the time

I am a feminist, not one who parades down the street about it but a proud father of a great daughter. I taught my daughter since an early age that she can do whatever guys do and she can do it even better than them if she works hard enough for it.

This is how our societies will progressively change imo, as fathers and mothers, it is our duty to be feminists and to also teach our boys how to respect their mom for a start and other girls and women just like if they were their mom.

I don't know if they know WHO they belong to but I think they know WHAT is inside some of them (saucers, triangles, but not Tic Tacs). If some intelligence can create/manifest beings and craft, then seeing a certain being inside a craft doesn't mean you know its origin.

8 Summary: To me, what Lue said 2 @zcichy doesn't match what Lue said 2 Dolan. It certainly appears a certain faction of our gov't may have grabbed UFO data, lied to us & intimidated Americans. And THAT may be why we don't trust our gov't on this.

7 I mean, Lue can say it was just Doty going rogue but then he said what he said to Dolan (screen shot in Tweet 6) & if accurate, we have a much bigger problem than just Rogue Rick Doty. How do we handle this? Can of worms looking to be opened.

Wouldn't mind a Doty/Lue debate.

6 people? Did/do they intimidate taxpayers? Amnesty 4 all? Was that outside of their chain of command or was that a gov't group we don't know about? And if it WAS a black budget group, does that mean our gov't HAS lied 2 us & maybe infiltrated our groups on a semi-official level? http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E35UHjhUUAUbyra.png

LE: I will tell you that, in my experience, there were some elements that were interfering with our capabilities to collect and analyze data and information. This kind of goes to the whole, I guess, the speculation of some sort of secret government, society or Men in Black or whatnot. I haven't had any encounters. Now, I will say without going into much detail, I did have a very, at one point, a very close colleague of mine, that told me emphatically that that body exists but I haven't had any encounters and I suspect if it does exist…

RD: Wait, that there's a mysterious like, let's say, quasi, Men In Black type organization that is out there that is acquiring UFO data?

LE: You can call it whatever you want. Another organization that's doing some type of similar work and maybe on the black side of the house, black operations. I don't want to feed any more conspiracy theories because, frankly, I don't really know. But I did have a colleague share with me that they were convinced that there was an element within the government that did do that type of stuff and would intimidate people. I haven't had any personal experience. It's probably

To The Stars Academy of Arts and Science

January 23 at 3:11pm ·

On October 11, 2017, during a broadcast announcing the formation of To The Stars Academy of Arts & Science, our creative team utilized a slide that was intended to be illustrative of the Nimitz case discussed in the presentation. We recognize that the use of this slide without proper clarification created confusion and, most importantly, did not meet our standard of accuracy. TTS Academy is committed to being a trusted leader in the exploration of exotic science and technologies, and we regret this oversight. It is important to note that the evidence presented by the speaker regarding the Nimitz case is derived from the testimony of multiple US military personnel and multiple sensors aboard multiple ships and aircraft operating in conditions of excellent visibility. Furthermore, the US Department of Defense has not denied the account provided by TTS Academy or the retired US military personnel involved in the incidents of November 14, 2004.

The only question weâ□□re asking right now is how long the four pilots/WSOs saw the Tic Tac with Fravor seems 2 disagree but maybe I'm reading it wrong? Certainly seems like he had visual contact on Tic tac for a lot longer than 8-10 secs, as Alex has said. So here, I agree w/@MickWest. Seems 2B a discrepancy, or, like I said, I'm reading it wrong.

there. And as we start pulling nose up, the thing rapidly accelerates like from, just this nice, easy, kind of mirroring our speed to…poof, it's gone as it crosses our nose. It just disappears.

"So we're like…I go…I ask the other airplane, 'Hey you guys see that?' And they're like, 'It's gone.' Now keep in mind, they're still above us. So it's not like, you know…we have different perspectives of the object. And the object, we both see it just take off and disappear. So we're like, (laughs) alright, now I'm pretty weirded out. So I said, 'Hey, let's turn around and see what was in the water. Cause we're right there. So we basically just turned the airplanes around real quick and there's nothing. There's no disturbance, there's no whitewater…as far as you can see, there's nothing. So we kind of turn and I'm like, 'Well, you know, look at the clock…but we gotta get some training done.' And, I told my back-seater…I said, 'Dude, I'm pretty weirded out. That's…that's odd.' So…and the controller's hearing all of this, so. I remember telling the controller, I said, 'Hey, please tell me that you guys are gonna strip the radar tapes.' And throughout this, he's been telling us, 'Hey sir, we've been tracking these things for like two weeks, since we got out here."

VA: "Really?"

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E30Pbz2UYAEvMx1.png

"So the first thing you think is, oh, it's a helicopter, right? So as we're looking at it and he goes, 'Hey, do you see, what the…' And I go, 'Yeah, what the hell is that?' And we're looking."

VA: "What's your altitude at this point?"

DF: "Uh, we're at about 20,000 feet. So we're looking down. There's no rotor wash. There's no wings. It literally looks like a Tic Tac and it's just flopping around, right? So we're like, that's kind of weird. So as we remove around towards about the nine o'clock position, I decide, 'Hey, I'm going to go check that out.' (both laugh).

VA: "Of course."

DF: "So the other pilot says, 'Hey, I'm gonna stay up high.' I said, 'That's perfect. Just stay up here. Just mirror us and I'll go down.' So we're having all this comms. And I'm also talking on the intercom to my back-seater. And we're both, you know, kind of like, 'Dude, what is that?' And we have no idea. So, at about the nine o'clock position we start that slow descent and as we get around to the twelve o'clock…and we're watching this. So this whole evolution's gonna take about five minutes because we're only dong around 300 knots. (345 mph ~Joe) We're just kind of saving gas. So we get to about the twelve o'clock position and the thing, which had been pointing north/south, basically just turns. So now the longitudinal axis is kind of pointing to the west. And it starts mirroring us. So we're in a slow descent, clockwise flow and it's coming up the same way. So this thing's been in a hover, right over the water, with no rotor wash or nothing and then all of a sudden, it goes…BOOP, and starts climbing.

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E30PXUpUcAMC3X-.png

"So we're kind of looking at it and we go around, you know…all the way around. So as we approach about that six to eight o'clock position – actually, we're at six and you know, we can watch it, it's coming up below us. At about the eight o'clock position – we're at eight o'clock and it's over towards about two o'clock – there's probably about, maybe about 3000 feet of altitude between us. So, we're probably at about, you know, somewhere around the fifteen-ish thousand and then he's probably around…the thing is probably around that eleven/twelve thousand, somewhere around there. So I go, 'Well, the best way to fix it a two- circle, fight – so he's on the opposite side of the circle – is cut across the middle of the circle. So I go, nose low, and cut across the circle and pull lead on it. So I, finally at the eight o'clock…think of it as, I point my nose down…I'm gonna cut across the bottom. I'm gonna make a big scoop out out of the bottom of it. I'm going kind of over towards three o'clock cause I wanna kind of be over there when he gets @Julesofthwood I get it 100%. I think people whoâ□□ve followed me for any length of time know Iâ□□m skeptical about pretty much every claim in this field. Doty is no different. @UAP_Dan Except there's a lot more in the full quote. Some of Doty's information was verified by Puthoff and his folks. Some was not. Mixed bag. So don't reject the information out of hand. Unlike Hal, I'm not in a position to verify Doty's claims so I listen and just take it in, for now.

@Julesofthwood And Doty has said he's embarrassed about what he did in the past at his job. For some, that's not enough. I get it.

Do you have a link to information that Bennewitz committed suicide? I thought he died in the hospital.

I feel same way w/1961 MJ12 SNIE. List of folks (in this community) who told me it was fake is a long one & some of them went out of their way trying to convince me of that. Wreaked of desperation. You'll notice that w/some folks when it comes to anything on crash retrievals @Timspeer8 @dave_beaty @SilvaRecord @KeithBasterfie1 On a scale of 1-10, I'd give the 1961 SNIE MJ-12 document a 9 as far as it being legit. As I stated in my blog (which I assume you've read by now), my source says they looked at the original at the government agency that owns it. http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E3zi8BXUYAE7KnZ.jpg

I believe it to be a legitimate document because of the following:

An independent source with the appropriate security clearances and need-to-know access had authenticated and validated the Nov. 1961 SNIE with several SIS-level authorities at the U.S. government agency that owns it, so this document is not any hoax or forgery.

(SIS = Senior Intelligence Service ~Joe)

And the same source added this little tidbit: The author of this SNIE report has a documented history of leaving various, uncorrected typos in their final reports. What?! That piece of information might just be my favorite part of this entire story!!! That tells you just how thorough this source (and others like him/her) are with this material. They need to make sure before they put their reputation behind it. And I realize it's an anonymous source but I know who they are and I have no doubt this document is legitimate. The one source who first brought up the typos never mentioned that possibility. I was going to search for other, similar reports with typos but I trust this source so I'll take their word for it. Others can take a look. On a related note, when Luis Elizondo's resignation letter leaked, folks pointed to a few typos and started claiming it was fake. It wasn't.

HP: This is a question about…Richard Doty has stated on the internet – a very controversial figure as many of you would know – and he stated that he had worked for us for, I guess, over a decade or whatever. That was a period in which we were really investigating all kinds of aspects of the phenomena that I talked about today. And so we had all kinds of consultants. And Richard Doty was one of them. And so, he gathered up information that he could gather up and thought we'd be interested in. But he was like, one of many. And so, even though he's a very controversial figure out there, we're not sure if the data he provided…what was the percentage that we could really count on. But hey, we didn't want to leave any stone unturned, anything that might be hiding under a rock.

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E3zeEMYVEAIQ4tu.png

So we had several people, and he was one, who consulted with us. And he told us about various sightings and certain aspects of government programs and so on. So, what he says is true and it would be too long to try to go into the data he provided us with. Some if it we evaluated and could verify and some of it we couldn't verify. Some of it we were pretty sure it might not exactly be the case. But he was a counter-intelligence officer, so that would be okay. because that would be his job (audience laughs). So anyway, we interacted with all levels of people, in and out of the government. So, it's not surprising that, you know, if we were doing all of this and trying to find out everything we could find out, why would we leave out of our tool kit, somebody who's making these big claims and was clearly part of a program? So yeah, we worked with him. I happened to like him as an individual, actually. He's a nice guy.

Iâ□□ve definitely thought about that. The insults back and forth between Greer and Elizondo should stop, IMO. Also, Lue was mad people judged him without ever meeting him or talking to him. But he judged Doty (forget which interview) without ever meeting or talking with him.

Doty thinks we wonâ□□t get much from report but a private group will help us move forward. Doty thinks a slow disclosure will come from a private entity. Not sure if thatâ□□s from his sources.

21 Klass supposedly thought SOME of the info. in the MJ12 was legit. Doty thinks the docs were created to start disclosure. Aviary/sparrow (and not Falcon) was Doty. Richard Helms (CIA) was Falcon. Aviary was organized by Pandolfi, Puthoff & I missed the other names.

1 Puthoff mentioned a crash retrieval related document that leaked. Danny & I found out what document it was thru different sources. It's a 1961 SNIE, MJ-12 doc. I have zero doubt it's legit & I also know how it leaked (which I won't share) & know it leaked two different times. https://twitter.com/CanadianUFOGuy/status/1403377021212774403

AATIP Slide 9 http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E3n8sOsVEAUDoYb.png

(AATIP Sub-Focus Areas)

The science exists for an enemy of the United States to manipulate both physical and cognitive environments in order to penetrate U.S. facilities, influence decision makers, and compromise national security

- Psychotronic weapons
- Cognitive Human Interface (CHI)
- Penetration of solid surfaces
- Instantaneous sensor disassembly
- Alteration/Manipulation of biological organisms
- Anomalies in the space/time construct
- Unique cognitive human interface experiences

DoD Advantages

- DoD has been involved in similar experiments in the past
- DoD has relationships with renowned subject matter experts
- DoD controls several facilities where activities have been detected

What was considered "phenomena" is now quantum physics

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

The following information was received 18 August 1947 from Hyde Park, Long Island, relative to the sighting of a possible flying disc 4 August 1947.

On 4 August 1947, with Pan American Airways, Inc., was the first pilot of a Constellation type aircraft on a flight from Gander, Newfoundland, to La Guardia Field, New York.

took over the aircraft at Gander, Newfoundland and departed at approximately 1830 P.M., Eastern Daylight Saving Time for La Guardia Field, New York. At 1800 P.M., at a position approximately midway between the Yarmouth (Mass) Fan Marker and the Bedford Radio Beacon (Everett is 2 miles SW of Boston, Mass., and Bedford is 15 miles SW of the same city) sighted unidentifiable flying objects. To the best of the following weather conditions existed at that time: Visibility was good; cloud coverage was from 6-8/10ths, with tops at 30,000 feet; and the wind at the 8,000 foot level was estimated as being 270/25 miles per hour. The aircraft was at 8,000 feet; airspeed 288 mphs and the course was 266 degrees, magnetic.

was sitting in the co-pilots seat (the right side of the cockpit) first called attention to a bright orange object, which was on the right side of the plane, and slightly below the level of the aircraft. was unable to see the object, as he had no visibility to distance to object was appx 50 miles. Soon after flash a dark brown smoke appeared to or climb at an angle of 60 degrees. At the leading edge of the smoke at appx 100 feet appeared an object either disc shaped or a fuselage without wings travelling at terrific speed. Pilots started pursuit on heading of 210 degrees mg. Indicating 300 at every steep climb. Pursuit continued until pilots reached village of clear and lost sight of object. Reaction object gained altitude and speed and disappeared because of distance of appx 50 to 55,000 feet. Color of smoke brown, color of object dark and no reflection from sunlight. Pilots as ured of shape because of perfect silhouette against the sun. One pilot had object in view appx 44 mins. First sighted at 1500GZ. Coordinates 04 degs 13 mins North, 149 degs 30 mins West. Info will be fwd when obtained.

@0mega_Point @devgru1980mi So, things could change by the 29th. Maybe it was leaked early to gauge response from the public and media?

Iâ□□m very curious to see details of the 120 reports. Condon report conclusion sucked but the cases didnâ□□t. Lots of solid, unknown cases were included.

@HunterRedX Of course I want more but for most of the world, saying aliens canâ□□t be ruled out in the NYT is a HUGE deal. Itâ□□s a wake up call for many of them. Hell, we even had a few questions about crash retrievals and bodies. What were/are you hoping for?

2 Why would they crash on purpose?

Speculation, again...

To help us advanced, technologically?

To let us know we're not alone?

To trick us into thinking they're ET when they're really from here?

1 No blog on that.

Why they crash?

Don't know. Only speculation...

We shot 'em down? EMP?

Propulsion failed? Maybe some craft aren't as advanced as we think?

They crash on purpose & beings inside are AI so no real loss of life?

Some donated via landing as Davis suggested?

1 Anybody interested in the phenomeon should read, "Hunt for the Skinwalker" by Knapp and Kelleher. The Davis (he's called "the physicist" in the book) incident is discussed in there.

https://nexusnewsfeed.com/article/unexplained/kit-green-s-mindtap-spies-lies-brain-scanners-and-telepathy/ https://twitter.com/UAP_Dan/status/1401379915774140418

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E3K2ruMUYAA5_mf.png

Davis told us, “NIDS folded in October 2004 and ceased routine intensive staff visits to the ranch back in 2001. I was the team leader from 1999-2001.”

“There were multiple voices that spoke in unison telepathically,” Davis candidly explained, regarding the Skinwalker attack, “The voices were monotone males with a very terse, threatening tone … Four senses were in their control so there was no odor, sound, smell, or touch, and overall body motion was frozen (as in the muscles that would not respond). Afterwards, when completely freed from this event — after the dark shadow disappeared — there was no lingering or residual odors, sounds, etc. in the immediate environment.”

Was Bob Bigelow’s remote ranch possessed by an evil supernatural entity?

“How do you interpret that?” I asked Davis. “Sounds like the Exorcist?”

“It does sound like it,” Davis responded, “But it wasn’t in the category of demonic possession. More like an intelligence giving a warning to the staff by announcing its presence and that they (the staff) were being watched by this presence. Demonic possessions are not short lived nor as benign as this, and they always have a religious context.”

Now you're speaking my language! It's one of the theories I tweeted about last year. Maybe the craft (they created with their super duper, advanced 3D printer) will never work for us no matter how much we try to back-engineer? Trolling us, yes. 3 Since this guy has 18 years experience, I'm obviously leaning heavily in his favor. Lehto's (the fighter pilot) speed estimation is similar (but higher) than what Bruce Maccabee and @GarryPNolan came up with a few years ago. http://pbs.twimg.com/media/E3IHrfgVIAEBf0P.jpg

Paul Scott Anderson

March 12, 2018 ·

Bruce Maccabee just posted today on Facebook an updated estimate of the speed of the GO FAST object. Works out to about 380 mph. To note, that fits within what Garry Nolan of TTSA said, about 350-460 mph (300-400 knots), as tracked by radar.

REVISION OF SPEED CALCULATION MARCH 12

I have re-evaluated the speed of crossing the FOV (1.5 deg is assumed) during the short time that the image of the water was nearly stationary and pointing at a fixed area about 10 nm from the plane. In my TENTATIVE CALCULATION I estimated "4 to 3 seconds" of crossing time. However, when I subsequently counted the number of video frames I found that it took about 55 frames at 30 frames/sec which corresponds to 55/30 = 1.8 sec. The exact distance to the object at that time is not known because the system had not yet locked on. However when it did lock on a short time later the range was about 4.1 nm and decreasing. I therefore "guesstimate" the range at 4.5 nm. The width of the FOV is 1.5 deg x 0.0174 rad/deg = 0.026 rad which corresponds to 0.117 nm at 4.5 nm distance, The object crossed the FOV area at an angle of about 45 deg so the distance traveled as it crossed the FOV was about (0.026 rad) x 1.41(to account for the 45 degree crossing) x 4.5 nm = 0.165 nm. It traveled this distance in about 1.8 sec for a speed of 0.092 nm/sec which is about 330 kt....about twice the larger speed previously calculated but certainly not an earth shaking speed.

@Ricky_Gr8Ness Actually, I think some of what people see may be our tech. Not sure it can be ruled out unless folks doing the report have access to every black program, including the Unacknowledged ones. And AFAIK, they do not.

Some light-hearted banter but this is a good report and segment. Everybody keeps hammering home the point that "aliens" have NOT been ruled out. So, I feel a little better today about the NYT article & what the 180 Report allegedly says. Progress.

2 that is leaking. And my info. matches that. So, "appearances" are wrong.

Statement from Corbell:

â□□Unequivocallyâ□¦ the UAPTF has never leaked any footage or materials to me or George Knapp. That is a made up fantasy, born from a lack of accurate intelligence & understanding.â□□

I fully believe we have craft and bodies. So, if the bodies are of non-humans, what would you call the craft that carry them? I think alien (meaning, not ours) is a proper term, even if they're not ET.

https://twitter.com/_/status/1400617307689218049

Not really. According to the NYT, the report says they're not ours and we have no evidence that it's alien but we don't know what they are. BTW, it could be Russia and/or China, who have been working on some hypersonic tech, or it would be something else that we don't understand. https://twitter.com/BryanDBender/status/1400613541518843907

Summary of NYT article on 180 Day Report

Not our tech.

COULD be Russian or Chinese hypersonic tech, which means they leapfrogged us in a big way.

We couldn't rule out other possibilities.

So, we just don't know.

And 2 me, that is 100% bullshit. I believe some folks KNOW.

It's also not ruling out Russia and China and without data (videos and radar) data showing some of the five observables (I'd like to see 90 degree turns and instant acceleration), this will be used by debunkers to tell us, "Nothing to see here."

I heard about this case when SL was interviewed by @g_knapp on @MysteryWire. She starts off talking about an apparent Bigfoot encounter when she was young.

1 #supernatural #vampires Something different. This could be a story made up to entertain. If so, Nick succeeded w/me.

Some will like it &amp; others will reject.

This allegedly happened 15-20 years ago. I wanna hear from the alleged, female witness.

@SmoshDavis @Go_Kick_Rocks88 She took a break earlier this week. She does that from time to time and gets the hell away from Twitter.

But with today? I don't know.

@Trustno65879092 I read the Rick Strassman book when it came out and remember Art Bell having to end his interview with Strassman early bc Rick was struggling. I was thinking to myself, "Is he taking DMT now?" :beaming_face_with_smiling_eyes:

It was weird. RS was clearing his throat every few seconds.

@Dingus15700175 I have never met anyone who thinks this scripted show on abductions is a documentary. But I'm confident saying some of it is based on real cases.

@ZainAly786 @Go_Kick_Rocks88 And, as I say all the time, I haven't figured out ANYTHING when it comes to the phenomenon.

Just that SOMETHING anomalous is interacting with us and has been for a very long time. But I DO have my favorite theories.

Q Leader, Jordan Sather, was interviewed bc the host was just asking Qs!

A lot of us have have seen the "Just Asking Qs" excuse since 2017 & realize it's bullshit. There's a personal agenda @ work w/many of those Qs & it's finally time for me (& others) to move on & ignore. #ufo @ZainAly786 @Go_Kick_Rocks88 Not everybody here is searching. Some just want to battle on here all day long, non-stop. With REALLY bad logic. And others (like @SicCoP1 & @MusicAndTruth) are starting to see it, too. We don't need to name names.

@ZainAly786 @Go_Kick_Rocks88 I'm done wasting my valuable time on folks like that. They can't even take the time to read my W/D blog (or work of others) & they don't know the basics. Just like folks who promote Greenstreet's Skinwalker vids. Watch his biased vids & then read Salisbury's Utah UFO Display.

@ZainAly786 @Go_Kick_Rocks88 Wait, that's what u got from my Monty Python vid?

OK, I'll bite. Bc I can reason w/Jess. Other folks have their views & will never change. If ur still questioning whether Davis met w/Wilson (and NOT whether we have a CR program), your logic gene is broken & I can't help you.

I don't think Kit was just throwing out one of his fav theories but can't say for sure unless I ask.

Over the decades, in order to avoid panic, have we been manipulated (via movies, books, stories, memes) to accept a scary idea about aliens when the truth is not so scary? #ufo
