Allard Beutel/STS-130 Launch
Commentator: And Commander George Zamka, expressing the looks of confidence in launching.

And Bob Behnken's about ready to have his turn in the White Room.

And we see back in the White Room that Terry Virts and both Nicholas Patrick.

Travis Thompson/Closeout Crew Member: And see, they shook hands because one's going to the flight deck, one's going to the middeck. So they won't speak to each other until...

Allard Beutel/STS-130 Launch
Commentator: Directly until, I guess, they get into space, right?

Travis Thompson/Closeout Crew Member: Very good.

Confirming that Nicholas Patrick now is heading to the middeck. Kay Hire.

Travis Thompson/Closeout Crew Member: Kay, as I mentioned, she was on the closeout crew also. She was the No. 2.

Commentator: Now we have Mission Specialist Steve Robinson.
He is making his fourth flight here.

They must have got a "go" to close the hatch.

As I said, the T tool's all ready inserted. They're checking the arm along there so there is no friction on the thermal barrier.
