What was once shrouded in fear and superstition… now brings about a sense of wonder and delight.

This is a Total Solar Eclipse.

A period when the Moon passes exactly between the Sun and the Earth… and its shadow covers portions of the globe.

In the early hours of March 8th and 9th, the shadow's Path of Totality will cross over an area in Micronesia.

Watch coverage of the Total Solar Eclipse on NASA Television.