00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:07,000

That's why it's the local postmaster and the Vicar, according to the chairman of the council.

00:00:07,000 --> 00:00:16,000

Now this evening they heard Dr. John Cleary, the baker of the British Unidentified Flying Objects Research Association, assure them that there was nothing to worry about.

00:00:16,000 --> 00:00:19,000

00:00:19,000 --> 00:00:27,000

But he couldn't offer any concrete suggestions, apart from the possibility that high ground near this little wheelchair town

00:00:27,000 --> 00:00:32,000

might be used as a fix for anything wanting to land on nearby Salish Replane.

00:00:32,000 --> 00:00:37,000

Two people described hearing or seeing strange things in the sky.

00:00:37,000 --> 00:00:42,000

One of them is Mrs. Rachel Atwell, so that whatever it was, it scared her out of her wit.

8

00:00:42,000 --> 00:00:48,000

She told me afterwards that she'd seen a bright ball giving off a loud, high-pitched sound

00:00:48,000 --> 00:00:54,000

and the only reason she'd gone to the meeting was the fact that it scared her out of her life when she wanted to find an explanation.

10

00:00:54,000 --> 00:00:59,000

Then the head postmaster said that his house was surrounded early on Christmas morning

11

00:00:59,000 --> 00:01:04,000

via terrible sound as though all his tiles were being lifted off and put back on again.

12

00:01:04,000 --> 00:01:07,000

But later on when he had a look, they were undisturbed.

13

00:01:07,000 --> 00:01:15,000

But it is, well, we're not much the wiser tonight, but there is a talk, Peter, of setting up a listening post here in Warminster.

14

00:01:15,000 --> 00:01:17,000

Well, it sounds like something interesting is happening down there.

15

00:01:17,000 --> 00:01:22,000

David, you've obviously been well involved with it. What's your favourite anecdote about the FASFR?

16

00:01:22,000 --> 00:01:28,000

Well, the favourites just came up today with the current edition of the Warminster Journal.

17

00:01:28,000 --> 00:01:32,000

Let me quote. They're relating some of the experiences of people.

18

00:01:32,000 --> 00:01:40,000

One night before last Christmas, an apprenticed carpenter arrived home in a breathless state after seeing his girlfriend back home.

19

00:01:40,000 --> 00:01:44,000

That's back home to the nearby village of Sutton Veeney.

20

00:01:44,000 --> 00:01:47,000

He was shaking in every limb when he staggered indoors.

21

00:01:47,000 --> 00:01:55,000

His family were most concerned, but it was some time before he told them of his peculiar experience on that walk through the darkness.

22

00:01:55,000 --> 00:01:57,000

But what was the experience?

23

00:01:57,000 --> 00:02:01,000

Well, it seemed something. Something like a monster cat, he said.

24

00:02:01,000 --> 00:02:04,000

Good heavens. Well, thank you very much indeed, David Shoot.
