Did you say from your experience that the possibility of the canals could be ruled out

2

00:00:08,400 --> 00:00:09,400

or is it still open to debate?

00:00:09,400 --> 00:00:13,840

Well I think it's open for debate on the ground that those photographs only cover about 1%

4

00:00:13,840 --> 00:00:14,840

of the surface.

5

00:00:14,840 --> 00:00:20,600

When the mariner photos were first released there were quite a few people that had said that the photographs ruled out the possibility of life on Mars.

6

00:00:20,600 --> 00:00:23,600

7

00:00:23,600 --> 00:00:29,160

The answer I have given to this frequently is that the first 20,000 photographs of the
