

Reports of a large unidentified flying object over Dumfries early this morning have baffled Scottish police. Residents on a council estate and hospital workers reported sighting an oblong object, well illuminated.

Some people told police the object was a series of clusters of lights which hung just below cloud level for 20 minutes before vanishing.

Evening Mail 30 Aug 80
R. Gibbons

Coach bl