

News in brief

A BALLOON may have been the "mysterious object" seen by Paul Bridges, and his wife Wendy over Tilgate Woods. The 'vibrating star' changed colour from white to blue, red and orange and back again over 45 minutes.

A DAILY commuter service plus a shoppers' service (Green Line 760/761) are being run from this week by London Country Bus Services from Broadfield, via Bewbush, Gossops Green, Southgate, Tilgate Drive, Crawley Bus Station and Three Bridges.

THREE - hundred member Crawley Down Youth Club is asking Mid-Sussex Council for permission to build a £12,000 club HQ behind Larchwood School. Worth Parish Council will give £2,000.

COUNCIL tenants' applications to buy their Crawley homes are coming in at a dozen a day. Some 2,590 want to buy and 938 claims have been accepted.

THREE starting pistols, 30 rounds of blank ammunition and stop watches were stolen from Thomas Bennett School, Crawley.

A LOW-FLYING, single-engine aircraft has been disturbing Bewbush residents.

CRAWLEY OBSERVER 5-2-81

ALAN GARDNER