GOV'T HIDING BODIES OF DEAD ALIENS

THE PHOTOCOPY (above), and the artist's sketch (left) based on it, allegedly show an alien in the custody of two U.S. military policemen. The photocopy came to light in 1950, when an unnamed informant gave it to New Orleans-based FBI agent John Quinn, claiming it showed "a man from Mars in the United States." The original photo is said to have surfaced in Wiesbaden, Germany, in the possession of a U.S. soldier stationed there. How he came into possession of the photo, who the soldiers pictured in it are, where it was taken, and the exact nature of the respiratory apparatus the alien is wearing are not known. The photo did receive considerable publicity in Germany in the late 1940s, but its relation to the Roswell incident remains a mystery.
