

Betty lands in a UFO rumpus

By FRANK PALMER

A CLOSE encounter with an advert about UFOs upset a Woman magistrate.

It said that a Mrs Betty Davies, out walking her dog, had spotted a white globe swooping over Nottingham.

The advert was a publicity stunt, but the real life Mrs Betty Davies found herself bombarded with calls, even from the police, wanting more details of the mysterious UFO.

She was so annoyed she called in her solicitor.

While Mrs Davies was sitting in court yesterday her husband said: "A lot of people took these silly reports seriously and caused her acute embarrassment."

The full-page newspaper adverts were paid for by Central TV, which is taking over from ATV Midlands. They are opening a TV station in Nottingham on Friday.

General manager Jeremy Taylor said: They were part of a spoof campaign running all week.

"It is sheer coincidence that the name chosen by our advertising agent is the same as hers, and we are sorry for any distress caused."
