Ello, ello —a UFO

A CLOSE encounter of the patriotic kind has left two baffled Welsh bobbies stary-eyed.

Pcs Tim Banks and Simon Holder claim a red, white and blue flying saucer hovered over them in Goldwire Lane, Monmouth.

Then with a flash of light it shot off towards Abergavenny.

Chief Inspector Keith Harris said: "I've no reason to doubt what the two officers saw, but it sounds strange. Still, at least it seems to have been a patriotic UFO."
