

FEBRUARY 26 1983

Many saw the light

PERTH Observatory was flooded with calls yesterday evening after a meteorite passed over the eastern suburbs.

More than 20 people reported seeing a bright, blue-green light shoot across the sky about 7pm.

The light broke into three pieces and then disintegrated after about four seconds.
