

UFO claim ^{AS} over 'lights'

A policeman's photograph of strange bright lights near a cliff face in the Yorkshire Dales has been claimed as possibly "one of the most conclusive sightings ever" of an unidentified flying object.

The picture, published in a Yorkshire paper, shows three points of light.

According to the newspaper, members of the Yorkshire UFO Society have investigated and decided that the photographer's experience "could be one of the most conclusive sightings ever".

Express Star. Aug 23 1983