

BOYS' TOY STARTS BALLOON HUNT

A search by police, firemen and ambulance crews for survivors of a hot air balloon seen blazing in the night sky was called off yesterday.

The balloon turned out to be a toy made of tissue and wood which belonged to two 12-year-old boys at Taunton, Somerset. A police spokesman said the boys had been ticked off.

D.T. 31-12-83