

Riddle after pilot

DTB

OFFICIALS are still baffled by an unidentified flying object which flew underneath a Greek airliner over the Italian Alps.

Milan air traffic control and radar say nothing showed up on their screens and the military authorities have announced that no missile was fired in the area at the time of the sighting.

spots UFO

But Captain Cristos Stavulis, of Olympic Airways flight 132 from Zurich to Athens on Thursday, is convinced he saw a 20-foot long object less than 200 feet below him.

... MAKES ME TICK