

INVADERS ZAP AL'S UFO SHOW

By GEORGE DEARSLEY

A LIVE radio show on UFOs was destroyed yesterday . . . by Earthlings.

Seventy drunken yobs overturned presenter Alan Robson's tent as he was trying to interview people about alien sightings.

And as listeners heard the sound of ripping canvas, angry Alan, 27, announced:

"Because of these stupid wallies we are going to end the programme here and play some music until I get back to the studio."

Then the Newcastle Metro Radio man dropped his mike and fled as the rowdies pelted him with beer cans from the top of Penshaw Hill, near Chester-le-Street, Co. Durham.

By the time police arrived the invaders of the airwaves had gone.

Producer Jim Brown said: "Alan was a little shaken

"About 300 people had gathered to meet us but some had been drinking heavily and it all got out of hand."

Caryl Sibbett

"THE STAR" . TUESDAY AUGUST 27

1985

PAGE 13.