

Hartlepool Mail.

18 OCT 1985

'Angel hair'

FLYING SAUCER lore has a component nicknamed "angel hair" which is a mysterious, wispy substance reported falling from UFOs on many occasions. Theories have been advanced that it may be a waste product, microscopic particles held together by an ionized or electrostatic field, or simply a device of extraterrestrial occupants to mislead us.

More probably, however, it is simply fibrous deposit from spiders' webs.