

Roslyn Whitford.

Red flare mystery

MYSTERY surrounds reports of red flares seen in the sky over West Devon.

A reddish smoke trail was first seen by a farmer at Chilla, Beaworthy, and reported to the police.

They checked with the Army at Okehampton Camp and other military installations, but none had organised any exercises or training which involved the use of red danger flares.

Exclusiv Express & Echo 6 JAN 86.