Just a flying visit to the pub!

218

LANDLORD Ray Grimes insists he had not been drinking on the night he saw a UFO in the skies above his pub near Woodstock!

Mr Grimes, who runs the Duke of Marlborough, said he watched the strange object for about two minutes before it vanished

Fascinating

"It was a little after midnight and I was out in the garden walking the dogs. I spotted a brilliant white light in the sky, moving slowly downward."

He said: "As I watched, it suddenly split into two before coming together again, then dropped down towards the horizon."

"I stood on a chair to get a better look and I then called out to my wife. But the object suddenly turned orange and vanished. It was the most fascinating thing I've ever seen."

Mr Grimes is convinced that it was not a plane, a meteor or the planet Venus.

He added: "I know people might think that because I'm a landlord

I might have had a drink or two, but that's not true. I didn't tell the regulars the next day because I thought they would laugh. But I definitely saw something weird."

Mr Derek Mansell, of Wheatley, treasurer of a UFO research group, said: "We have had other reports in the past of UFOs splitting in two and then coming together again. There appears to be no normal explanation to this incident, and I will be investigating it."

One remote possibility was that it might have been a satellite burning up as it re-entered the atmosphere.
