

748

Woman 'stabbed' by gnome dies

Mrs Jean McManus, 58, of Seaton Way, Hartlepool, Cleveland, died in hospital on Saturday after contracting tetanus a week ago when she was stabbed in the leg by a decorative fishing rod carried by a garden gnome.

The rod had previously been used to support a plant growing in soil fertilised with horse manure.

14 July 86 Telegraph