

Boy dies in 25,000 volt horror

By JOHN PRINCE

A YOUNG boy died last night when he touched a 25,000-volt railway power cable. His pal was badly injured after they climbed over a footbridge and touched the power line. The boys, aged ten and nine, were playing at Platt Bridge near Wigan, Greater Manchester, when the horrific accident happened. Rail officials in Britain say a power

INVESTIGATION into Whitehall's secret dossier UFO COVER-UP

DEFENCE chiefs have been accused of keeping secret startling evidence of UFO sightings.

Two new books contain astonishing allegations of a Whitehall cover-up.

And the claims have been supported by a former Chief of Staff at the Defence Ministry, Admiral of the Fleet Lord Hill-Norton.

Jenny Randles, author of The UFO Conspiracy, said: "The ministry is frightened of telling the public the truth because they fear there will be panic."

"But I'm sure people would rather be told the facts than be deceived."

"We aren't talking about little green men jumping out of space ships."

"We are talking about serious evidence which points towards a UFO phenomenon which must be investigated."

The ministry has, locked away in its files, over 3,000 UFO reports, collected over the past 25 years.

In 1982, the MoD announced it was about to publish the reports, but 18 months later the decision was suddenly reversed.

A letter from the ministry to Jenny claimed: "We receive hundreds of these reports each year and to prepare them for publication would involve a great deal of editorial work, for which we have neither the money nor the staff."

Speaking at her home in Cheadle Heath, Greater Manchester, Jenny said: "That is complete garbage."

"The fact is that they are onto a subject which alarms them. They haven't got a clue what they are dealing with and what to do about it."

A second book on the UFO mystery, Above Top Secret, by Timothy Good, has the official backing of Lord Hill-Norton — he has written the book's foreword.

Among the book's mass of evidence is the puzzling story of three people interviewed about UFO sightings by men claiming to be intelligence officers from the MoD.

Timothy said: "They were interviewed for up to two hours each, told they had seen UFOs and ordered to keep what they were told from the press."

"Now the MoD denies anyone ever went to see them."

Senior Whitehall

Lord Hill-Norton

spokesman Mike Stewart denied any cover-up. "The sole interest of the MoD in UFO reports is whether they are of a defence interest," he said.

"There is nothing sinister and there is nothing to hide. Quite simply the MoD has more important matters to deal with."
