

Did the aliens warn Neil Armstrong off the Moon?

THE Americans have captured a crashed UFO (unidentified flying object) with four dead aliens inside it, claims the author of a startling new book about flying saucers, Timothy Good.

American spaceships have constantly been shadowed by UFOs, he says, but astronauts have been forbidden to talk about it. And when astronauts Neil Armstrong and "Buzz" Aldrin stepped on to the Moon in 1969, he claims they were watched by two huge UFOs that were sitting on the edge of a crater.

Just another flying saucer crank?

Not at all, says Admiral of the Fleet and ex-Chief of Defence Staff Lord Hill-Norton in a powerful foreword to the book.

Lord Hill-Norton denies that Mr Good is "a nut-case" and says he is a thorough researcher whose book is based "soundly upon fact and a great deal of most convincing evidence which I have not seen in print before."

DOCUMENT

Mr Good's claims are so sensational that even he admits at one stage that many readers may "wonder if I have taken leave of my senses." He claims—

● That he obtained early this year a top secret 1952 American Government document confirming that a UFO crashed in New Mexico in 1947 and that the Americans retrieved the saucer itself and the corpses of "four small human-like beings."

● That each American President is briefed about a secret intelligence group—

Books by GRAHAM LORD

Majestic 12—that investigates reports of UFO sightings, then covers them up to prevent public panic.

● That although Neil Armstrong continually denies the report about UFOs on the moon, he has privately confessed that the Americans "were warned off" the Moon by the UFOs and that "there was never any question then of a space station or a Moon city" because "their ships were far superior to ours."

● That in Britain there are so many hundreds of UFO sightings each year that a secret 30-man Ministry of Defence UFO tracking station and research centre at RAF Nuffield Manor in Wiltshire is manned 24 hours a day—and that he was arrested at midnight when he started noising around the area.

● That Prince Philip believes in UFOs and has told him: "There are many reasons to believe that they do exist. There is so much evidence from reliable witnesses."

Prince Philip is so interested in the subject, says Mr Good, that he regularly receives the magazine Flying Saucer Review and ordered a copy of Mr Good's previous UFO book George Adamaki—The Untold Story.

His uncle Lord Mountbatten was also fascinated by UFOs and seems to have been convinced that a flying saucer landed on his estate at Broadlands in Hampshire in 1955.

SURVIVE

Mountbatten, yet another Admiral of the Fleet and Chief of the Defence Staff, even said of UFOs: "If they really come over in a big way, that may settle the capitalist-communist war. If the human race wishes to survive they may have to band together"—a point that was reiterated two years ago by President Reagan in a conversation with Russian leader Gorbachev at Geneva.

Does Reagan know something sensational about UFOs? Does Gorbachev? Are our leaders hiding something from us all?

Timothy Good insists they are—and the wild, weird case he argues in ABOVE TOP SECRET: The Worldwide UFO Cover-up (Sidgwick, £14.95) includes scores of stories of world wide UFO sightings and contacts by ordinary mortals, Russians, Chinese, even President Jimmy Carter) that are sometimes difficult to explain—like the 1984 sighting over Stanmore in Middlesex by no fewer than eight policemen, for as long as two hours.

What to make of it all? I'm still sceptical, but millions aren't. Even Air Chief Marshall Lord Dowding once said of UFOs: "I am convinced that these objects do exist and that they are not manufactured by any nation on Earth."

And as recently as 1985 the Zimbabwe air force scrambled two Hawk jets to try to intercept, in vain, a UFO that was tracked on radar above Bulawayo.

Zimbabwe Air Commodore David Thorne told Mr Good: "As far as my Air Staff are concerned, we believe implicitly that the unexplained UFOs are from some civilization beyond our planet."
