

DAILY MAIL

27 AUGUST 1987. K.S.

FORGET the aliens' press conference. Those documents that surfaced purporting to be evidence that the Pentagon had recovered four bodies from a crashed flying saucer in 1947 have now been denounced as 'clumsy counterfeits.' The Committee For the Scientific Investigation of Claims of the Paranormal says the documents — which said that President Truman had set up a secret unit called Majestic 12 to study the aliens — represent 'one of the most deliberate acts of deception every perpetrated.'