

Shanghai Sightings Of UFO Reported

BEIJING (AP) — An unidentified flying object that witnesses say looked like an oval, a comet or an orange was seen over Shanghai on Thursday night, the Xinhua news agency reported Friday.

Military planes took off to observe the object over Shanghai, China's largest city, but the army released no details of any findings, Xinhua said.