

UFO PROBE

A CYLINDER which crashed on to the roof of a country house sparked off a UFO investigation yesterday.

Saddler Nathaniel Underwood and his wife Elizabeth narrowly escaped when the 12in. long, red-hot metal object fell from the sky at Wychanger Barton, Somerset.

Police who took it away said they assumed it was part of an aircraft, but West Drayton air traffic control said there were no planes flying over the area at the time.

DAILY MIRROR Wm.
11 SEPTEMBER 1984