

Daily Mail, Monday, 14 September, 1987

Drug fear after mystery flight

THE mystery of a moonlit helicopter flight has baffled police.

The helicopter touched down without lights at 4 am in Lydford Forest, Dartmoor.

But RAF and civilian airfields have no record of its flight.

Now the Drugs Squad has been called amid fears that a syndicate may be using the area for smuggling.

BH