

I HAD SEX WITH ALIEN TOYBOYS

? Sunday Sport - 1988

A GRIEF-STRIKEN woman told last night how she was dragged from her home and seduced by two alien toyboys.

Her astonishing story was backed by UFO experts who have likened her abductors to weird space age seducers.

The 40-year-old housewife says the silver suited youngsters took her from the bedroom of her Blackburn terrace house to a sports field and performed a bizarre sexual ritual after laying her on her back in their dome-shaped spaceship.

"We have interviewed this woman in depth and have no reason to believe she is lying," said Philip Mantle, who has probed thousands of cases for Yorkshire's UFO hotline.

Terror

The mum was terrified by the aliens' parting words which were: "Now you'll be able to have a baby."

Philip said: "If you were to joke about it you could say this woman is the first in Britain to find an alien toy boy."

"But the experience has upset her deeply. She trembles and cries when she remembers it. The night had a profound effect on her."

Sunday Sport, has the housewife's full name and address but has agreed not to identify her.

Now you can have our baby
shock

The slim brunette was near tears as she told us: "I woke up at about midnight and two young men with leather hands and tight fitting silver suits were standing by the bed.

"They took me into a field. There was a ship about the size of a bus on the grass. Everything was lit up with coloured lights - it looked like a fairground."

Proof

"I went through a multi-coloured panel door into a square white room. There was a bed with a sheet over it and they made me lie down."

The housewife still bears physical proof of the ordeal on February 14 this year...she has three puncture marks on her arm.

She recalled: "There was a tube which they put into my left arm at the top. I still have the marks.

"They shackled my legs up and I smelled something sweet, like cinnamon. I felt a needle go into my arm. Then I blacked out."

According to Phillip Mantle, the aliens then had strange sex with the woman.

He said: "There was medical evidence that she had been interfered with. We are waiting to put this lady under hypnosis and believe she had some sort of sexual intercourse with them.

"It is very difficult for her as she has a common law husband and four children."
