Sleuths decline probe of UFO report

LONDON (UPI) — Scotland Yard has too much down-to-earth crime to probe to delve into the mysterious case of a UFO reported hovering over London, a spokesman said Tuesday.

Three policemen, summoned by a teenage girl who spotted a bizzare object in the sky, reported back to their stationhouse that they too had seen it, a police spokesman said.

Zena Sfei, 16, noticed the saucer-shaped, brightly colored object and viewed it through a telescope mounted on the doorstep to her family home, then called police to verify the sighting.

The Evening Standard newspaper said the officers watched the "gray-green, pink and electric blue object as it spun, banked and hovered" above London's posh Kensington neighborhood for about 30 minutes.

"Police officers saw an unidentified object after a call from a member of the public," the spokesman confirmed. "We are unable to say what it was."

He said the officers entered it into their stationhouse logbook but there would be no further investigation.

"It's a minor matter although it's something unusual," he said. "We have enough trouble dealing with murders let alone investigating lights in the sky."
