

DAILY MIRROR,
London, England
Jan. 18, 1988
CR: T. Good

HOW strange to read in the Mirror about the Space experiences of others only a few days after my own. Unable to sleep, I peered from my window and saw a sphere of green light zoom over at roof-top height. It was the size of a football, and heading South-West. — Doris White, Milton Keynes