

UFO sighted

AN unidentified flying object stalked a family on Australia's desolate Nullarbor Plane, family members say. "It smelt really foul," Patrick Knowles, aged 24, said in a television interview yesterday, after his two brothers and his mother said they were pursued by the object. Authorities are taking the claims seriously after similar sightings by a truck driver and offshore fishermen in the Great Australian Bight. — Reuter.

Australian Friday

22/Jan/88