

CONFIDENTIAL

■ The official Qatar News Agency said yesterday that it had received several reports of an unidentified flying object over the northern part of the Qatar peninsula Sunday night. The agency said a number of men and women gave the same description of a "bright revolving disc with changing colors that emits a low hissing sound."

□ From Press wire services

Asbury Park Press

February 9, 1988