

T8A - TUES 23/2/88

---

● AN unidentified flying object was spotted over the Medellin airport on February 9 by several pilots and flight control operators, the daily El Colombiano reported yesterday. At one stage, the international Jose Maria Cordova airport control tower, believing it was a private plane, gave landing instructions, the newspaper reported.

Paul Bennett

---

Briefing Telegraph & Army