JACKIE MAY BE ON RUN FROM ALIENS

POLICE are baffled by the disappearance of a woman who had earlier claimed she had been abducted by aliens.

Secretary Jackie Smith, 39, told workmates how her car was beamed up by a UFO after she was put in a trance.

When she woke up she had strange blue dots on her ankles and neck.

UFO expert, Jenny Randles, who has been called into the hunt by Jackie's boss, said yesterday: "The spots are a sure sign of an alien presence.

"She may be hiding because she is terrified they will come back for her."

Jackie, of Warrington,
