Sexy ETs go crazy over human love vibrations

SPACE ALIENS are attracted more to human women because they have a higher "love vibration," than men, according to research gathered by a top UFO investigator.

And an increasing number of women all over the United States report that ETs are materializing in their bedrooms and raping them, reveals author Brad Steiger, 52, of Scottsdale, Arizona.

By EDWARD REYNOLDS

Writes Steiger in his intriguing new book The UFO Abductors (Berkley, 1988): "I first began receiving letters revealing the UFO-nauts' extraordinary interest in our planet's females in 1966.

Urgency

"The letters all had a monotonous sameness about them, yet they contained a strong note of urgency, and they came from all sections of the country."

One bright female college student wrote that a flying saucer hovered over her car while she was driving to her parents' farm.

Just hours after the sighting, the young woman said she was aware of something in her bedroom as she was preparing to retire for the night.

She claimed she had not fallen asleep before she felt something fondle her.

"I wanted to scream, to get out of bed, but I was unable to move," she recalled. "I remember nothing more until I awakened the next morning, but I have reason to believe that something made love to me while I slept.

"I believe this incident was associated in some way with my sighting the UFO."

A young California woman claimed she was raped and impregnated by an ET. Writes Steiger: "There is also a deposition by her doctor who testifies to having treated the young woman for the premature delivery of a still-born baby that seems to be the product of highly dubious mixed breeding."

Barbara, a research assistant to New Zealand UFOlogist John Stuart, claimed she was raped by an unseen entity for more than two hours shortly after she and Stuart had seen a grotesque misshapen entity while investigating a UFO report.

The assistant said she smelled a strange odor the moment she stepped into her room.

And while taking a bath, she felt unseen eyes following her every move. Then, as she put on her pajamas, an "invisible something" touched her on the shoulder.

She found herself paralyzed.

Nightmares

UFOlogist John Keel believes cases of UFO sexual liaisons are a variation on the incubus phenomenon. An incubus is explained as a spirit or demon thought to cause nightmares by raping women in their sleep.

Keel told Steiger: "Induced hallucinations seem to play a major role in these cases.

"There may be considerable validity to the theory you expounded in one of your books that semen is extracted from human males in some succubi events and that this same semen is then introduced to human females in incubi incidents.

Deception

"The true nature and purpose of this operation is completely concealed behind a screen of deliberately deceptive induced hallucinations.

"Early fairy lore is filled with identical cases, as you know. And such sexual manipulations are an integral part of witchcraft lore."

Mother seduced by alien toy boys

A 40-YEAR-OLD woman claims she was seduced by two alien toy boys.

The unfortunate mom of four was abducted from her bedroom by two silver-suited youths and dragged into a field, she said. There was a ship about the size of a bus on the grass and everything was lit up like an amusement park.

Said the nearly hysterical woman: "I went through a door into a white room. There was a bed with a sheet over it and they made me lie down.

"They shackled my legs and I smelled something sweet. I felt a needle go into the upper part of my left arm. Then I blacked out."

There is medical evidence that the woman was physically abused, according to UFO expert Philip Mantle.

"We'll put this woman under hypnosis," he said. "We believe she had some sort of sexual intercourse with them.

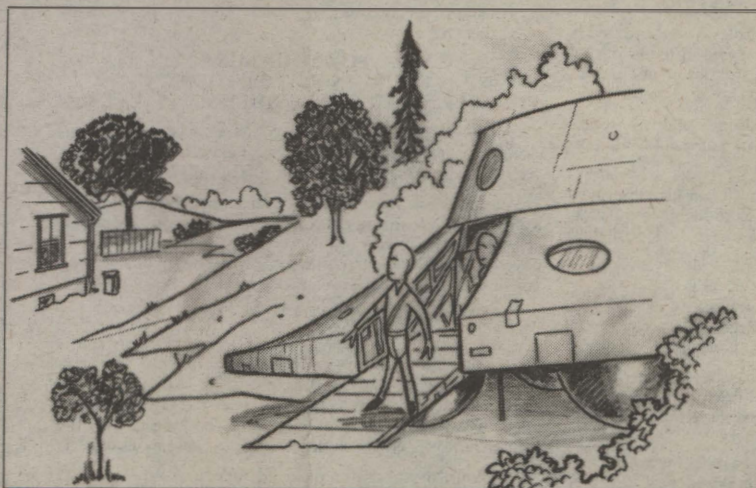

"It is very difficult for her because she has a common-law husband and the kids," he added.

The woman was petrified when the aliens said after the terrifying experience that she could have a baby.

The woman still has terrible scars from the ordeal, said neighbors in Blackpool, England. Sex with her hubby has become repugnant.

She has nightmares, recoils when someone merely touches her on the shoulder, and suddenly cries hysterically for no apparent reason, they added.

through a terrible ordeal and is trying to help her as best he can, said a close friend.

But many men don't understand the depth of a woman's mental and physical reactions after she has been sexually violated. Their relationship is being threatened by the tremendous strain and it could be on the rocks, she added.

"If you were to joke about it, you could say she is the first in Britain to find an alien toy boy," said Mantle. "And what if she had an alien baby?"

"Your planet or mine?"
