

Black Baron OW

'grounded' "Guardian"

French police said they were confident that the exploits of the "Black Baron", a mystery flier who has been buzzing Paris, were over after they pulled in a pilot for questioning.

Albert Maltret, aged 52, a former fighter pilot, was questioned after his plane swooped low over the Champs Elysées. — Reuter. Fr. 14/Oct/88

Soviet safety call

A Soviet commission of inquiry has called for stronger safety measures after a train laden with explosives crashed and devastated part of the city of Sverdlovsk, the newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya said yesterday. The commission found last week's accident, which killed five people and injured 838, could be blamed on railway workers. — Reuter.

"Guardian" Fr. 14/Oct/88