

Lights over Spalding

POSTAL worker Alfred Darley spotted bright lights in the sky over Pennygate, Spalding, on Sunday night.

He told the Spalding Guardian: "The sky seemed to light up for a few minutes. Then there was a flash and two minutes later I heard a boom sound."

Mr Darley said the lights were white. Two of his colleagues at Peterborough post office also saw them.

Spalding Guardian, Lincs.

16 DEC 1988