■ Look! Up in the sky . . . A fast, silent craft described variously as looking like an airplane or a banana with lights is bewildering northeastern Alabamans. Fyffe, Ala., Assistant Police Chief Fred Works said the object was still hovering over a farmer's field when officers arrived Friday night. "We got out of the car and when we started towards it, it began moving away." One officer said the craft was "bigger than a jumbo jet," covered with green, white and red lights and "going about 300 or 400 miles an hour."

■ Friends Indeed. Ninety teachers and six administrators at East Peoria, Ill., High School have voted to give up a week's pay rather than see three teach-
