

30 JUN 1989

City Shorts

● Startled city folk watched transfixed as a bright object hovered in the sky before disappearing over the horizon towards Tibberton on Sunday night. Observers said the UFO was five or six times the size of a star, had a bright orange light on the side and looked like some kind of aircraft but made no noise.