

“BALL OF FIRE” MYSTERY

OBJECT SEEN TWICE

A mysterious object was seen glowing high above Bristol late last night and again early to-day. The first time the object, an orange ball of fire, hung in the sky for about 10 minutes before disintegrating.

An hour later a similar glowing object was seen. This time it moved at a terrific speed upwards over the Bristol Channel