
Flying triangle

People in Kent and Essex phoned the Air Ministry in London last night asking about a "mystery object" seen in the sky and described as triangular or diamond-shaped. But official spokesmen could give no positive explanation.
