

It was only a balloon . . .

HUNDREDS of people were baffled last night by a "strange-looking" object in the sky.

Mr. Sidney Taylor, of Theobalds-road, Cuffley,—one of dozens of people who phoned the Daily Mirror—said: "It looks cone-shaped and has not moved for three-quarters of an hour."

The Air Ministry explained: A weather balloon.