

Sight 'Saucer'

SANTLAGO, CHILE (AP)—From the Antarctic Thursday came official reports that a mysterious lens-shaped flying object, maneuvering and moving at great speed was sighted last Saturday.

A Chilean base commander in the Antarctic reported the object was "yellowish red, changing to green, yellow and orange."

In Buenos Aires, the Navy issued a communique saying personnel at Argentina's Antarctic base saw the flying object and photographed it.