

Schoolboys see 'flying saucer'

Barry Neaves and John Binfield, two 15-year-old schoolboys from Sturry, near Canterbury, Kent, claimed yesterday that they saw a flying saucer hovering over the village on Monday night.

Said Barry: "It made a sound like a well-kept lathe. It had a glow and it was circular. I rang the R A F and they said they had received reports from other people about it."
