

Mystery of a flying 'sausage'

Birmingham Airport officials were today unable to throw any light on a mysterious "sausage-shaped" yellow balloon sighted over Castle Bromwich yesterday evening.

An eye-witness described the balloon as "about eight to twelve foot long, travelling from North to South, trailing a thick black cable at the of which was a black triangle.