

---

'Flying saucers'

Paris, Tuesday. — Flying saucers were reported landing or zooming across the sky in three separate areas of France during the past 24 hours.

A Normandy fireman said he saw a saucer land in a field and a farmer said his car had a total electric power failure when the object took off again. Reports of unidentified objects in flight were also received from central and south-west France.

---