

UFO group in Leeds

An international research group which claims it has evidence of where flying saucers come from and why they and their occupants are visiting earth is organising a public meeting in Leeds on May 30.

Mr. Paul White, Yorkshire organiser of the Aetherius Society led and founded by American George King says the founder has been chosen as a medium of outer space communications explaining the phenomenon.

The meeting will be held in the Leeds Art Gallery, The Headrow, on May 30, at 7.30 p.m.
