Subject: How To Get Your Life Straightened Up. Part 2. Mar. 12, 2011.

This discusses what the person thinks you can do to make these bad entities leave.

Considerations:

The Trinity Trap, regarding multiple personalities: Wait, now, please read this through. First, the scripture I-aiah 41: Behold, all they that were incensed against you shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish. Thou shalt seek them, and shall not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that w-r against thee shall be as nothing, as a thing of nought. Note that they who strive "with" thee and they that contended "with" thee shall perish. The trinity concept, "the comforter within, the h-ly s-irit of go- impersonators within, this concept will distract you, hide the real prize, your ow freedom. The b-blical trinity concept has caused much confusion and distraction. Basically, the Ho-y Sp-rit is represented as the comforter/protector within, who lives within our mind and body, quickening our thinking, casting down or hedging mankind from the d-monic imaginations and temptations, our conscience, our subconscious. It's 100% contrary to deliverance, to knowoneness, to perfect peace, to the "singular" (sanity), to perfect health, as it's often apparently used by the dem-nic as justification and for false impersonation of -od, false imprisonment, captivity, bondage, as a wolf in sheep's clothing, as impersonation of guardian a-gels/s-irits/G-d living within. They'll claim to be Go-'s people, of -od, and will try to cause men to praise/thank G-d for such. The de-il would appear as a minister of light, as a wolf in sheep's clothing, as -od's people, as sent by/of G-d, as Go-'s will and purpose. The devi- is known as a m-rderer (devourer) from the beginning. The truth is not in him, he is known as "the father of lies". The hol- Trinity is not in the original bi-lical text, but was added in the year 379 AD. "Sp-rit" is misconstrued as the sup-rstitious "gh-st" in 1611 King James wording. The trinity is in total contradiction to the Old Testament; "Hear, O I-rael: [Y-hweh*] our [El-him] is One, (none other than him) (D-ut. 6:4)." Take this where it might lead, but my own conclusion, presently, is to wo-ship "one true G-d", and "none other than him". In fact, I bind and rebuke anything contrary, as deceitful workers, as reprobate (immorality without hope), as l-ars, as fallen. So-called "comforters", li-rs, mur-erers, deceitful workers, who are forever "climbing into bed with mankind", in heat, in courtship, in marriage, in childbirth, father/motherhood, in d-vorce, predators, as were the days of Noah, doing anything to try and justify it, to denounce suspicion. The worst of it is that G-d has to go through them, to get to you.

The Trinity was not taught by the early c-urch. The teaching was contrived to replicate the Trinitarian beliefs of incoming pagan converts. The problem with this, is that people are led to believe that there is peace, a comforter present, and it's just another l-e, to prepare a bed. "Peace, peace, when there is never any peace." Drawing G-d near is what de-ons fear (they flee). We do not need inner meddlers, none whatsoever. They are deceivers handing out li-s and half-truths, mur-ers from the beginning. Their greatest deceit is that we need them within, that e-il justifies them (that evi- justifies such mu-der / trance / meddlers). There's more, I could tell you of their abuse, physical harm, even lusts/fetishes/indulgences. Yea, go ahead, trust them (such concepts): Yea, right...

In sp-rit/de-on possession, when "switching" occurs, our bodies shift from one personality to the other, the invader assuming the forward position (authorship, pilot, creative, predator, de-il, mu-derer, abduction), while the victim is usually unknowingly subconsciously semi-dead; zombie, entranced, abducted, dazed, impaired; a tainted corrupted sickly numbing co-consciousness. Certain medications have been known to alleviate some symptoms, but I'd like to introduce a new term, called "peeking". "Peeking" occurs initially, when a victim seeks, learns, and begins to achieve a re-association and reclamation of body, mind, and spirit. A victim of demonic possession must learn to seek to achieve this, the initial "peeking" (clearing) sensation. It's hard to explain, but when "peeking" occurs, it's usually initially random and temporary, demonic reluctance, struggling, unwilling to leave, but hereby somehow expelled. One normally describes a sudden "clearing" of the CO-conscious, of captivation, and of bondage, a sudden knowledge of body and posture, of physical balance, the feeling of the weight of his body on his feet, in his seat/chair, a sudden silence (peace within), the feeling and awareness of the earth's gravity, relaxed state, a know-oneness, a clearing, a reassociation of physical body consciousness, awareness, and sensations which were previously somehow lost/stolen in the subconscious, when impaired, dazed, disassociate, hijacked, "switched", ill, captive, in bound and captivated, blinded; demonic possessed. It is unmistakable, a rebirth (birth), a reclamation (association), a reassociation (non-integration), and that sudden strong sense of the earth's gravity (equilibrium, balance, anti-vertigo). In most instances, a perfect peace, a physical relaxation, a constant joy appears. In certain testimonies that I have reviewed, such "peeking" and reclamations were achieved mostly through dietary nutritional changes, along with exercise. Now, I cannot claim that this will work for just anyone, but in many cases nutritional changes and megavitamin therapy caused such "peeking" (clearing, reclamation, re-association, birth) sensations to begin to occur within just three days to 2 weeks time. Yes, the dietary changes held these demons at bay, banished, expelled, ejected, cleared from the primary senses, locked out of the cockpit, the control room, an anti-virus formulation, the spell broken, the trance eliminated. What is curious about this, would be to know exactly what vitamin and mineral combination causes exactly what kind of reaction to occur. Also noted in some cases, was the fact that certain addictions and deviations (addictive/compulsive problems) and more, suddenly disappeared.

One of the most obvious problems associated with medication, diet, and/or nutritional changes, is that such victims find extreme difficulty in sticking to any such routine. It's very difficult, due to the "who lives" factor. The entity just is not going to have it, he just isn't going to banish himself. In fact, resisting or banishment activity usually starts a fight, a struggle, a battle, for who will live (literally). Thus, it appears that something is needed that will work almost instantly, with lasting awakening banishing effects. Possibly something that one can carry in his front pocket, as a weapon (banish) to take when under attack, to protect, to banish. From what I see and sense about it, it appears that spirit paralyzes, impairs, and like prisons and zombies people (society), in order to entrance, abduct, captivate, zombie, possess, supersede, to override, to murder, in order to "become or possess" their prey (who lives?). So, about the only way to stick to this routine, is that one will have to rely upon God. Still, I've fell away, at times, which was certainly tragic, certainly fatal, to the soul.

Having been through this, years now, having repeated the nutritional changes and banishment several times; well, this just shows me that the nutritional changes work, verified, repeated, very substantial improvement, partial cure, for me. The morning routine, fresh or frozen fruits/vegetables, along with daily megavitamins (for that surge of strength/power), with a full glass of water. Before bed, I repeat the exact routine. The main thing I've noticed, with me, is that the complete routine must be followed, exactly and habitually, both fresh live food, the megavitamins, and the full glass of water. My stomach can't tolerate certain multivitamins, so I've had to switch around, finding those easy on the stomach. Now days, multivitamins, zinc, and B12, in mega dosage. Results within 2 to 14 days, but most notably after 2 months, straight spine, more conscious of the body, balance, and structure. I get the strange sense, the feeling that this dietary change this makes the alter-personalities (demons, invaders, predators, murderers) literally dizzy, nauseated, sick, dispels them, they turn away, instead of them dispelling, impairing, riding, meddling, derailing, hijacking, abducting, and becoming me (switchings). It's like they gradually become dislodged from the mind, body, and limbs, eventually to the point that there is a peace and joy, within. You should be able to tell by reading this that I am not just making this stuff up. The truth is that when I stopped following this nutritional routine in the past, and fell ill, impaired, and dissociated, I never realized it. Years passed, nearly a decade, and I never realized it (lost track of reality, and lost time, who lived?). My very soul actually impaired, semi-death, entranced, co/sub conscious, captivation, went numb, zombied, abducted, once again; and I was completely unaware of it. The lesson being that this is a matter of life and death, and that there was nothing I could do, to even see it coming, or to stop it. All that I could do, was to put it into God's hands.
